Maine Senator Seen As Likely Majority Leader

Indications Republicans To Select Him For Post
Over Senator Taft

"OPEN DOOR" POLICY PLANNED BY TRUMAN

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Responsible Democratic sources predicted today that President Truman will make good on his offer of cooperation with congress by inviting Republican leaders to his weekly legislative conferences.

The invitation for the 80th Congress convening Jan. 3 presumably would include the new Republican House speaker and majority leader, and the Democratic minority leaders of both chambers.

"Open Door" Policy

One administration source said this "open door" policy for the GOP leadership should be "assumed" from Mr. Truman's warmly-received pledge to cooperate with Congress.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr. (R-Mass.), who will be the new speaker, such an invitation, when and if it indicated he was ready to accept is extended. He said:

"I think it would be helpful, but I never intend myself anywhere."

The prospect of Republicans sitting on the regular Monday morning legislative conference at the White House was advanced as another compelling reason for the GOP electing Sen. Wallace White, Maine, as its new majority leader.

White Likely Selection

Senate Republicans said it was becoming more and more apparent that Senator White, the present minority leader, was an odds-on favorite over Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio). White, they emphasized, is acceptable to GOP liberals in the Senate who would oppose Taft and is liked at the White House.

The 60-year-old Maine Republican is described as willing to accept the majority leadership. That action, Republicans agree, would satisfy.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa New noticed this morning that the feather barometer of the Community Chest, that stands on the east end of the Diamond, has not only hit the top, but has gone beyond and is still going.

Tour of Lawrence County indicates that there appears to be a large crop of home grown turkeys for the holiday markets this year. There are numerous large turkey farms in the county this year.

Saw an auto on the highways near here, with the back of the coupe propped up as it went speeding along, and was surprised to see a youngster curled up in the compartment, apparently unmindful of the precarious position in which he was riding.

Motorists who parked their cars out on the street overnight had to shield the frost from their windshields before they could get going this morning. The heavy frost of the night ended the belated flower season which was in vogue about the city. Heavier clothing was in order for early risers this morning.

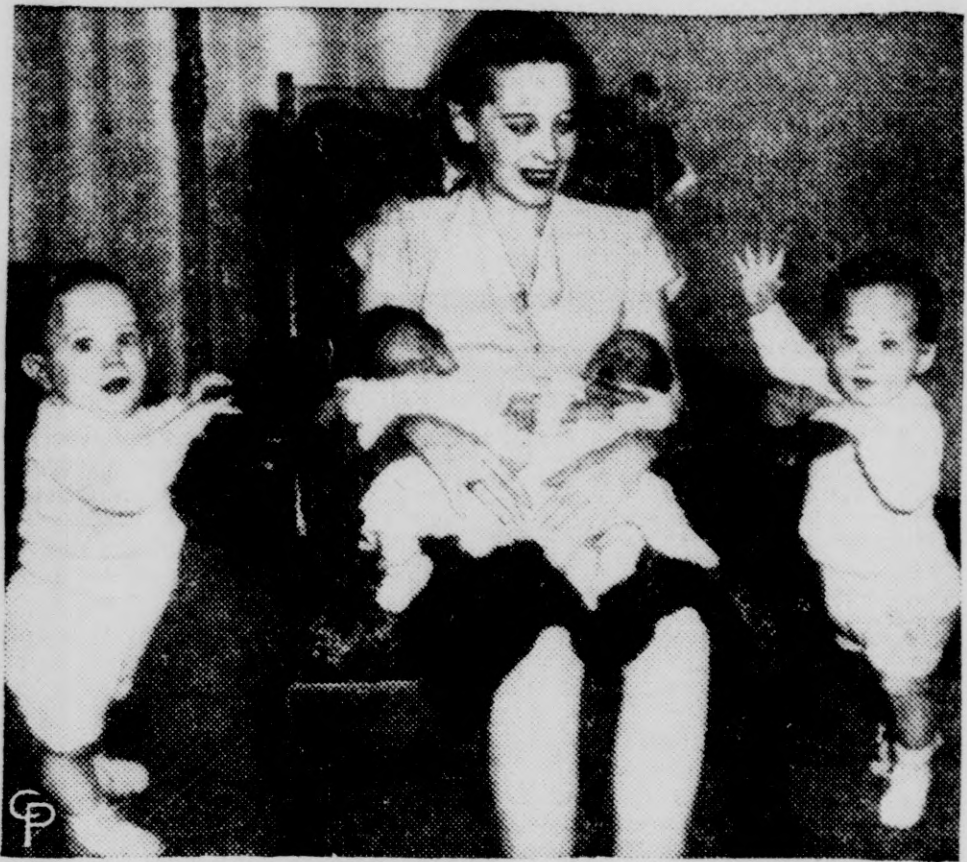

Pa New notes in the new telephone directory that was issued early this week that Joseph Zuzow of West North street holds the honor of being the last New Castle listing. The first letter on the street on which he lives determined his place in the book as another man with the same name residing on Hanna street precedes the first Mr. Zuzow. The A.A.A. retains its hold on appearing first in the new book.

Truman Must Settle New Housing Dispute

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—President Truman today was faced with the issue of whether the government should finance a program calling for ninety-million dollars worth of factory-built homes for veterans.

The problem was carried directly to the White House by Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt and George E. Allen of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation who currently are stalemated over whether RFC loans should be granted to cover the housing plan.

Wyatt and Allen were scheduled to discuss the matter further today but the housing boss disclosed that the entire problem has been placed in the lap of the President.

Settlement Effort Fails
An effort to have Mr. Truman settle the matter in a lengthy conference at the White House Tuesday failed when Wyatt and Allen left the executive mansion in "complete disagreement."

Allen, an RFC director, said (Continued on Page Two)

British Start Clearing Corfu Channel Mines

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—British minesweepers were reported today to have begun clearing of Corfu channel of mines despite an Albanian warning that this would be interpreted as a "premeditated violation" of her sovereignty.

Albania, replying to Britain's announced intention of sweeping the channel, objected to the entrance of British vessels into her territorial waters.

A British foreign office spokesman pointed out, however, that the channel between Albania and Corfu cannot be made safe without entering Albanian waters. Two British destroyers struck mines in the channel last month with loss of 40 lives.

Plane Circling Landing Field To Exhaust Fuel

Seeks To Minimize Fire Danger In Making Necessary Crash
Landing

(BULLETIN)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The British radio reported today that a four-engine British passenger plane is circling a landing field in Scotland to exhaust its supply of gasoline before attempting a crash landing.

The big plane left a British airport early this morning on a scheduled flight to Montreal and shortly afterward discovered that its landing gear was broken. It carried 2,500 gallons of gasoline for the trans-Atlantic trip.

The plane will not attempt to land until its gasoline supply is exhausted, thus cutting down the risk of fire in a crash landing.

Clash Looming On Income Tax Cut Proposals

President And Republican-Controlled Congress At Odds On Program

G. O. P. PROPOSES 20 PER CENT CUT

By ARTHUR F. BERNANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The first clash between President Truman and the Republican-controlled congress next year was shaping up today over the GOP proposal for a 20 percent "across the board" cut in individual income taxes.

Rep. Martin (R-Mass.), who will be one of the Republican party's most powerful figures as speaker of the house next year, endorsed the widely-discussed program at a news conference.

Martin declared: "I think we can cut 20 percent off of income taxes next year."

Clashes With Truman's Views

His position clashed with the known views of President Truman. The chief executive takes the view that present federal tax rates should not be reduced for two main reasons.

One is that the present high taxes will act as a bulwark against inflation, particularly in the light of his action last week-end in decontrolling virtually all prices and wages.

The other, is his belief that the present generation should pay for as large a part of the cost of the war as possible, and not leave a huge national debt for future generations.

The president feels that it is too (Continued on Page Two)

At the meeting of Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, held in the Legion Home Tuesday evening, plans were outlined for the annual project of the post and auxiliary to provide Christmas boxes for the veterans confined in U. S. Veterans hospitals in the state.

Mrs. Gertrude Speed, president of the Auxiliary, appeared before the post and stated that the auxiliary would cooperate with the program by packing these boxes again this year, and asked for the support of the post in financing the project.

Commander E. Gene Schweinsberg named Junior Vice Commander Merle H. Hildebrand chairman of a committee from the post to arrange to finance the program, a large share of which would be born (Continued on Page Two)

WOMAN'S DEATH TERMED SUICIDE

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The coroner's office said today a verdict of suicide would be issued in the death of Miss Catherine Arisbuckle, 35, of Pittsburgh, who was found dead last night in her apartment with a bullet wound in her head.

Deputy Coroner Fred Wehagan said investigation revealed that Miss Arisbuckle had been despondent since the death of a friend and had left a note saying "this has been too much for me."

Foreign Ministers Tackle Trieste Issue

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Council of Foreign Ministers, after a surprise agreement recognizing the "French Line" of the Italo-Yugoslav frontier, will meet today for the first round of discussions on the Trieste issue approved by a two-thirds vote at the Paris conference of 21 nations.

The four "big shots" of the council, Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, Soviet Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov and French Deputy Foreign Minister Couve de Murville, agreed that at 4

URGE LOTTERY FOR NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Three Democratic city councilmen today urged that New York City be allowed to conduct a lottery to help the city pay its bills.

The councilmen introduced a formal resolution in the city council asking that the state legislature make it legal for "municipalities to operate lotteries."

Similar proposals have received scant attention from the legislature.

Giant Storage Tanks Arriving For Gas Plant

First Four Huge Propane
Storage Tanks Reach Site
Near Ellwood

WILL PROVIDE FOR ADDED GAS HERE

Forty-eight railroad flat cars will be required to bring the 16 giant propane storage tanks to the new peak load propane plant which The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company is erecting in Franklin township near Ellwood City. The first four of the storage tanks arrived on the B. & O. siding yesterday.

These steel storage tanks are 9 ft. by 70 ft. When loaded with approximately 30,000 gallons of propane per tank, they will weigh about 100 tons each.

The 70 ft. length of the tanks made necessary the placing of each tank on the center of a flat car. The ends of the tank extended across the couplings and onto two adjacent flat cars. Despite their size no difficulty was experienced in bringing the first of the large tanks to Ellwood City.

J. P. Fitchard & Company, general contractor for this gas service improvement project of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, sub-contracted the unloading and erection of the tanks to J. M. Ferguson Co., Beaver Falls.

Ready In December

When the tanks have been placed on their large concrete foundations and necessary valves, piping and pumps have been installed, the new plant will be ready to receive its first shipment of the liquid propane (Continued on Page Two)

Six Policemen Killed By Blast Near Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Six policemen were killed today when the police rail trolley on the main Jerusalem-Lydda line was blown up near Beth Safafa on the outskirts of Jerusalem.

Near the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv two persons were injured when a mine exploded under a train.

Other anti-British attacks, since Saturday, caused at least five additional deaths and injuries to a dozen persons.

The other violence, laid to Jewish underground factions by the British authorities, included:

An explosion, apparently of a body-trap in a house where British officers were looking for an arms cache on Saturday, killing four persons and injuring seven.

The killing of an Arab and wounding of several British policemen on Sunday when suitcase bombs were detonated in the Ras El Ein railway station, east of Tel Aviv.

Plane With Eleven Aboard Is Missing

(BULLETIN)

BURBANK, Calif., Nov. 13.—(INS)—A Western Airlines plane with 11 persons aboard vanished in a heavy storm today within three minutes of arrival at its destination in Burbank.

The plane, enroute from Salt Lake City to Burbank, had its last radio contact with the airport at 3:37 a. m. (PST), asking for clearance to land.

Aboard were three crew members and eight passengers.

Police received a report the airliner was down in Laurel Canyon on the outskirts of Los Angeles but investigation disclosed the supposed wreckage merely to be a tree felled by the storm.

Western Airlines said virtually all of the passengers were from Rocky Mountain points.

The airlines said the passenger list was not available immediately.

Hand Grenades Hurl'd At Non-Strikers Homes

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13.—Hand grenades were hurled at the homes of two non-striking film workers within a period of ten minutes today.

The exploding grenade smashed windows and showered shrapnel into the home of William Solis, in suburban Inglewood. The blast shook Solis' infant daughter, but no one injured.

The second grenade exploded in West Los Angeles at the home of Paul B. Byrd, also a film worker.

Hurled On Porches

Both grenades were hurled on the porches of the homes and blew out windows and knocked plaster from walls.

At the home of Byrd, a film set construction superintendent at Columbia Studios, the blast dug a hole in the porch and shattered two windows in an adjoining house.

State Police In Gambling Club Raid Arrest 87

IRWIN, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—State police raided the elaborate City club at Stewartville early today, battered down a steel-plated door, seized thousands of dollars worth of gambling paraphernalia, cash and arrested 87 persons on gaming charges.

Corp. John Heisterstein, who led the raid, said he found a secret room behind a sliding bookcase which contained more gambling equipment, choice liquors and large sums of money in bank bags. The latter was not confiscated.

Seven men charged with operating the lavish club will be given a hearing in Greensburg tomorrow. The 80 patrons, mostly from Pittsburgh, were released on $10 forfeits.

Cattle Ranges In Colorado Bombarded With Bales Of Hay

DENVER, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Baled hay rained from Colorado skies today as army fliers bombarded snow-covered cattle ranges in the eastern part of Colorado with feed for cattle starving as a result of recent heavy snows.

In "operation hay", the army planes' green light signal for paratroopers to jump flashed, but it meant only "hay" in the no-pink-paint mercy bombing.

Other cattle stranded in drifts on the Colorado ranges received feed by truck. J. E. Sterling, director of the Lincoln county Red Cross disaster unit, estimated nearly 2,000 cattle were dead from the storm in that county.

Union-Management Making New Effort To End Hotel Strike

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—A new effort to end the 45-day-old Pittsburgh hotel strike will be made today when AFL union leaders meet with hotel management heads in a joint conference called after a three-hour meeting last night with Mayor David L. Lawrence.

Federal Conciliator Charles H. Kutz, who aided in the recent power strike dispute, will arrive from Washington to sit in on the parley.

The disputants will meet with Kutz and Mayor Lawrence at 1:30 p. m. today, it was announced.

The special meeting last night in Lawrence's offices was the mayor's second intervention in the walkout which has tied up eight major hotels. He made a last-minute effort to avert the walkout by 1800 service employees September 30, the night before the strike began.

Government Is Seeking Plan To Release Control

Krug Hopes For Agreement
To Restore Mines To Owners Is Belief

TO MEET LEWIS THIS AFTERNOON

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Bituminous operators received a 45-minute report from the government today on negotiations with John L. Lewis for a new contract covering 400,000 soft coal miners.

Presumably, the operators also discussed with Interior Secretary J. A. Krug the possibility of an industry agreement with Lewis which would permit release of their mines from federal control.

The mine owners were silent, however, concerning their conference with the cabinet member, and the interior department also continued in effect the tight "gag" on information about the coal-wage dispute.

Jilted Suitor Will Hang For Slaying Girl

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Ross J. Abbott, 24, of Deal Island today was under sentence to hang for the fatal shooting of his 20-year-old sweetheart, Pansy Twigg, who had jilted him.

Abbott remained calm as he heard the sentence, after changing his plea to guilty in a surprise move.

Carolyn Jean Mason testified that she, Pansy and Abbott's cousin were walking along the Deal Island beach last July 19, when Abbott approached and pumped two bullets into Pansy's body.

"Then he took her out in the water," she continued.

"He held her head under. He brought her back carrying her over his shoulder. Then he shot her again."

Abbott fired a bullet through his own neck a few minutes later, according to police.

The date of the hanging will be set by Gov. Herbert O'Connor.

General Assembly Action Being Hindered By Long- Drawn Out Debates

TRUSTESHIPS ARE STILL DAY'S TOPIC

By GEORGE DURNO
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 13.—The United Nations General Assembly and its component committees moved slowly today in low gear today as Russian-American debate on post-war territorial trusteeships resumed.

Already, the 51 member nations are so far behind in their deliberations that they promise to be knocking on the door of Christmas in New York rather than concluding their current session in early December.

Each succeeding day has piled up and retarded the agenda of pressing business with almost interminable debate. It was a case of division among the five major powers, of an effort of smaller governments to outvote the "Big Five."

End 12-Day Debate

A typical example came late last evening when the political and security committee of the assembly (Continued on Page Two)

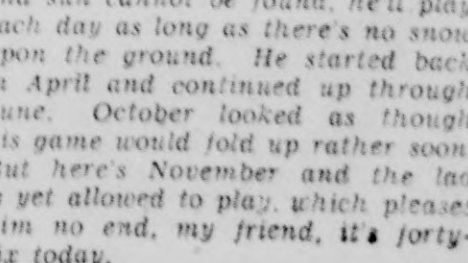

Masked Bandits Tie Up Employees; Then Rob Factory

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Two armed, masked bandits were sought by police today after they tied up two employees of Glenfield factory, smashed the safe and escaped with an undetermined amount of cash, police reported.

Alvin Luster, 24, and Charles Groh, 17, surprised the thugs in the manager's office of the Farm Industrial Tractor company when they entered the plant to fire the furnace last night.

The two victims told police they were forced to sit, bound hand and foot, for a half hour while the bandits used sledge hammers to open the safe. Luster and Groh succeeded in freeing themselves and notified police.

Martin Foresees Fast Settlement Of Beer Dispute

Governor Optimistic Following Conference With AFL Teamsters Union Officials

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Gov. Edward Martin was optimistic today about a speedy settlement of the AFL-CIO jurisdictional dispute embroiling Pittsburgh in a beer war.

Following a three-hour conference with four AFL Teamsters Union officials yesterday in an effort to prevent further violence or an extension of the dispute to other sections of the state, the governor announced that he would confer at Harrisburg tomorrow with CIO leaders.

"I am hopeful that out of the conversations with the two groups, an amicable arrangement can be worked out, and that the dispute can be settled pending expiration of a brewery contract April 1," Governor Martin said.

"I have discussed the situation fully with the AFL committee and I have contacted Anthony J. Federoff, Pittsburgh regional director of the CIO, and invited him and his committee to confer with me Thursday morning," the governor added.

"This invitation has been accepted," Governor Martin said. "Until I have heard both sides, I do not care to discuss any plan I may have in mind."

Pittsburgh breweries were being picketed by the AFL union whose members have refused to handle anything to or from the establishments in an effort to have the CIO recognize the Bottles' Union as an AFL affiliate.

Governor Martin and Secretary of Labor and Industry William H. Chesnut met with the Teamsters officials. They were Albert Dietrich, president of Joint Council No. 40 of the Teamsters Union; Lester M. Hunt, Nicholas P. Morrissey and James Ruehl, all members of the union's strategy and policy committee.

Hunt said the group had "explained our side of the controversy and pledged our cooperation to the governor."

GOVERNMENT IS SEEKING PLAN TO RELEASE CONTROL

summoned to a conference today with Interior Secretary J. A. Krug, to discuss the situation.

"It doesn't look too hopeful, but it is the only sensible thing to do," Krug said.

Other operators invited to the party were Ezra Van Horn, of Cleveland, chairman of the bituminous negotiating conference; Charles O'Neill, of Altoona, Pa., head of Northern Appalachian producers; Harry Moses, of Pittsburgh, representing steel-company "captives"; and George Campbell, of Chicago, head of Illinois operators.

Krug repeatedly has stressed the government's desire to get out of the coal business but the industry so far has not accepted the contract negotiated between Krug and Lewis last May when the government seized the mines to end a 59-day strike.

Now Lewis is seeking reopening of the existing agreement to obtain shorter hours for his miners with no loss in earnings. His demands are backed up by the threat of a strike Nov. 20.

John D. Battle, executive secretary of the National Coal Association, said that Lewis' demand for "more money for less work—is the road to ruin for the coal industry."

Battle asserted that coal is being priced out of many of its markets because of high costs resulting from the present Krug-Lewis agreement which gave the miners an 18-cent hourly wage boost plus a five-cent-a-ton "royalty" on coal to finance a welfare fund.

The industry, he said, cannot "absorb further increases in mine costs." Battle added that the need is "not for shorter hours and higher pay," but "for increased productivity, for less absenteeism, for an end of recurring strikes."

NCA officials said miners' earnings in August of this year were higher than the weekly average of any class of labor. Soft coal earnings averaged $62.37 a week, he said, against $47.84 in durable goods industries and $41.90 in non-durable manufacturing.

Many government officials believe Krug will have to make another contract with Lewis and retain possession of the mines in order to avert a disastrous winter strike.

three diplomats in acknowledging the validity of the so-called "French line" fixed as the frontier between Yugoslavia and Italy by the big four last July.

Diplomatic sources foresaw in the Russian foreign minister a more closely interwoven with the pattern of his recently launched diplomatic offensive at the United Nations, which began with a universal disarmament proposal.

Offers To Meet Requirements

He followed this up at the dinner of the Foreign Press Association Monday night with an offer to meet American demands for inspection rights as a prerequisite to disarmament. Although this apparent change in the unyielding attitude of Russia is viewed with caution by British and American diplomats, it has inspired the hope that Molotov will display a similar openness in the crucial problems of the five treaties and initial talks on Germany call for decisions.

The meeting today will last only three hours. Each of the big four has accepted an invitation from the Metropolitan Opera Company to attend the performance of the Italian opera, "Figaro."

Ironically, the statute of Trieste falls within the framework of the Italian treaty.

The delegation experts do not foresee sailing for the council in the next sessions, where sharp conflicts in viewpoints face the big four. Byrnes and Bevin in particular have demonstrated repeatedly and insistently that any hope of a "two-thirds" recommendation given a "recommendation" by the Paris conference is "viewed and supported by them as tantamount to a command inclusion in the treaty or treaties in question."

Later in the day oil-filled bottles were hurled at homes of two other non-striking film workers.

Truman Must Settle NEW HOUSING DISPUTE

"there is complete disagreement between Wyatt and Allen and nothing has been settled," Wyatt called this "a perfectly accurate statement."

Wyatt contends that RFC financing is the only way his housing program can be salvaged in the face of removal of price controls on building materials.

The RFC, however, has turned down practically in its entirety a loan program to finance construction of 106,000 pre-fab houses. Its argument is that would-be borrowers are not putting up enough capital to make the loans good financial risks.

Deaths of the Day

John Rycek (Recheck)

John Rycek (Recheck), aged 72 years, of Plainfield, N. J., died Tuesday at 1 a. m., in Plainfield, after a short illness.

He was born in Poland, and lived for the past two years in Plainfield. The deceased lived most of his life in this city. He was a member of the Madonna church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Madeline Rycek, of Plainfield; and children: Joseph and Louis Rycek, Mrs. W. B. Borada, Mrs. Anthony Moses, Mrs. Joseph Smolinski, this city; Mrs. Chester Gorski, and Mrs. Joseph Younke, of Plainfield, N. J., and 16 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Saturday, 9 a. m., in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anthony Moses, 831 Franklin avenue, this city, followed by a requiem mass at 9:30 o'clock, in the Madonna church, Rev. Fr. Edward Kukulik in charge. Interment will be in Madonna cemetery.

The body will arrive in New Castle Thursday morning and will be taken to the residence of his daughter, where friends may call.

Nick Perazoni

Nick Perazoni, aged 55 years, of 221 Franklin avenue, Ellwood City, died Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., following an illness of three years duration.

The deceased came to Ellwood in 1913, and for the past 30 years was cut-off operator at the Tube Mill. He was born in Italy, April 1, 1891, of Ercole and Anna Perazoni.

His wife, Mrs. Virginia Perazoni, survives, and she also leaves the following daughters: Mrs. Joseph Mancini, of Ellwood; Dena, Leda, and Anna; and two brothers, in Italy.

A sister died in Argentina, five years ago.

Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock, a solemn requiem high mass will be offered in the B. V. church, Rev. Fr. V. Galliano, Rev. Fr. Joseph Perazoni and Rev. Fr. Stanislaw Joscinski in charge.

Interment will be in Locust Grove cemetery. The body will be removed to the residence this afternoon from the Contrucci-McElwain funeral home.

Elmer F. Frey

Elmer Francis Frey, aged 32 years, of 1050 Adams street, died in Cresson early this morning after an illness of nine years duration.

Mr. Frey, son of Clarence F. and Esther M. Frey, was born June 15, 1914, in New Castle, where he spent his life.

He was employed as a bookkeeper by the Valley Motor Freight company and was a member of Central Christian church.

Survivors in addition to his parents include three sisters, Mrs. Dorothy DeGarmo, New Castle, Mrs. Esther May Robinson, Bakersfield, Calif., and Mrs. Thelma Harper, Ellwood City.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Howard L. Reynolds funeral home, Adams street, with Rev. James N. Rainey officiating.

The body will be removed to the late residence, where friends will be held at home until noon on Thursday until Saturday morning, when it will be returned to the funeral home for services.

Mrs. Gresham Funeral Time

Funeral services for Mrs. Amanda Gresham, aged 70 years, will be conducted from the St. Paul's Baptist church, Friday at 2 p. m., and interment will be in Gracefield cemetery.

The body will be taken from the Crunkleton funeral home, to the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Crawford, 22 rear East Long avenue, Thursday evening at six o'clock.

Mrs. Gresham was born in Whitehall, Ala., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Watkins. She was a member of the A. M. E. church in Whitehall.

Her husband, Nelson, died July, 1914.

Surviving are three daughters: Mrs. Mary Crawford, this city, with whom she has resided since August; Mrs. Mahalia McNeil, Birmingham, Ala.; and Celestine Gresham, Columbus, Ohio; two grandchildren, Felix Gresham, and Ralph McNeil, the latter overseas.

Mrs. Mary Jane Wise

Mrs. Mary Jane Wise, of 418 East Sunner avenue, died this morning at 7:45 o'clock, in the New Castle hospital.

The body is at the A. Darrell Burke funeral home. The obituary and funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow.

Stalma Funeral

Funeral services for Andrew Stalma were held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., from the family residence, 1205 Cascade street, with Rev. Francesco P. Sulmonetti officiating.

Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

Palbearers were: John Dada, Nicholas Flick, Fred Savelli, Louis Boris, Jacob Bakham and Adam White.

Letoff Funeral

Funeral services for Louis Letoff, of Fairmont, West Virginia, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Campbell's North Hill Funeral home, Moses avenue at Delaware.

Services were in charge of Hymen Krash, of the Tifereth Israel Synagogue.

Palbearers were members of the Tifereth Israel congregation and interment was in Tifereth Israel cemetery.

Miss Manzo Funeral

Solemn high mass of requiem for Miss Lucy Manzo was offered this morning in St. Vitus church at 10 o'clock, Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMica, Rev. Fr. Sebastian Ippolito and Rev. Fr. Francis Boyle in charge. The latter conducted the communal service in St. Vitus cemetery.

Palbearers were: Francis, Anthony and Harry Cook and Anthony Ragnelli. Schoolmates were honorary palbearers.

fy the thin line of "stop-Taft" forces and avoid a party fight over the Taft.

Taft, who will return to Washington tomorrow to preside over the GOP steering committee session, has not made himself a candidate for the majority leadership. Friends say he probably would support White if the senior senator wants the post.

G. O. P. on Calling List

Thus, at the present outlook, the congressional leaders who would go on the regular White House calling list would include:

Martin as speaker, and Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R) Mich., who is slated to become Senate president pro tempore.

White, as Senate majority leader, and either Rep. Charles A. Halleck (R) Ind., or Rep. Clarence J. Brown (R) Ohio, top candidates for House majority leader. Halleck is regarded as a slight favorite now for this post.

Sen. Alben Barkley (D) Ky., retiring majority leader who is slated for the Senate minority leadership, and the House minority leader yet to be picked. Southern Democrats are advancing Rep. Gene Cox (D) Ga., for the latter assignment against Rep. John W. McCormack (D) Mass., the retiring House leader.

To avoid a scrap, an effort is being made to get speaker Sam Rayburn (R) Tex., to reconsider his decision not to take the minority position.

UNITED NATIONS PROGRESS IS SLOW

concluded a 12-day debate on only the first item on its agenda with a highly diluted and time-killing compromise.

This entailed an original move by Australia to give the full assembly first say over admissibility of new United Nations members, rather than to the 11-Power Security Council where any one of the United States, Soviet Russia, Great Britain, France and China may exercise a single veto.

Pulls Teeth of Proposal

Sensing defeat, Australia's Paul Hasluck, in the interests of harmony, "pulled all the teeth from his proposal and substituted at the last moment a somewhat innocuous proposal that representatives of both the General Assembly and the Security Council get together and devise an interpretation of future UN procedure, which would be satisfactory to both bodies—a report to be made considerably later next year.

This carried, 29 to 9, with 6 abstaining and 6 absent. The United States, Russia and France still voted in the negative. Great Britain and China favored the compromise.

Highlight of today's activities was expected to be a resumption of the battle over the control of non-self governing territories, either under United World War I League of Nations mandate, or won the hard way in World War II.

GIANT STORAGE TANKS ARRIVING FOR GAS PLANT

pane. The pressure tank cars from the propane processing plants will arrive in a few weeks.

According to F. W. Burdette, local manager of the gas company in New Castle, the peak load plant will be ready to be placed in operation about the middle of December. The gas company representative revealed that if mild weather is experienced at that time the peak load facilities will not necessarily be immediately needed. "This plant will swing into operation," declared Mr. Burdette, "when the load dispatcher of The Manufacturers Light and Gas Company believes it is necessary to increase the availability of the gas supply to meet a peak load demand."

"During the early morning hours of winter days a very large demand exists for natural gas. This acceptance of natural gas for many residential, commercial and industrial purposes has increased rapidly in recent months. The gas company will operate the peak load plant in conjunction with natural gas supplies readily available in an attempt to continue the satisfactory and uninterrupted gas service which has always been our desire to render to gas users in this general area."

The local manager of the gas company contended that the new peak load plant will have the capacity to produce an output of propane-air gas equivalent to 7,000,000 cu. ft. of natural gas every 24 hours.

early in the 1947 fiscal year to revise downward the government's income from taxation. Only four months of the fiscal year have passed, and the president feels that the serious economic effects of strikes and other production disturbances during that period warrants a re-survey of the government's fiscal position.

Mr. Truman is inclined, however, to relieve the tax burden of lower bracket income groups—probably by raising tax exemptions—when the fiscal study is completed in a month or two.

Neutral observers tried to figure how Republicans can cut taxes at present, in view of the unbalance still existing in government income and outgo.

Tells Of Needs

F. X. Keating, special service officer at Deshon hospital, and I. J. Nealon, assistant, who was formerly located at Deshon Annex here, were guests of the post, and told about the present needs at the hospital, where in the neighborhood of 500 veterans are now undergoing treatment, many of them from the New Castle district.

Entertainment, photographs, and magazine subscriptions are the most pressing need at the present time, Mr. Keating stated. The hospital has a fairly good library, but if anyone wishes to donate to it, they are asked to send a list of the titles to Mr. Keating. These can be addressed to Deshon Hospital, Butler, Pa. In this way, books which will be of interest to these hospitalized veterans can be selected, and those which it is felt, would not be of interest to the men can be rejected and they will not clutter up the shelves of the hospital library.

BESSEMER WOMAN'S CLUB HAS PANEL

In observance of Education Week, this week, Bessemer Woman's club members at their November meeting Tuesday evening in Bessemer Presbyterian church heard a roster of nine speakers present summaries of various phases of educational and social work in the county.

Speakers were Mrs. Joseph Gibson, chairman of the club education committee; Mrs. Joseph Gillespie, executive secretary of Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross; Miss Agnes Howley, secretary of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society; Mrs. Blake Waldo, representing the Lawrence County Cancer society; Mrs. Paul Kancogier, treasurer of the four-county council of the American Legion auxiliary; Mrs. Paul Forcey, Girl Scout commissioner; Mrs. Kenneth Beck of the League of Women Voters; Captain Theima Dunden of the Salvation Army and Mrs. Lucien C. Black, president of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs.

To open the program, George Kyle of the music department of Mt. Jackson high school, presented Joan Martin, who played a saxophone solo, and Nola Patterson, who sang two solos. Both were accompanied by Shirley Gwin.

Mrs. Seldon Byers, program chairman, introduced other club members who in turn presented the speakers.

At the close of the program refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilbur Summers and a social committee.

Next meeting will be Tuesday, December 10, when Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine will be the speaker.

Rachel Rebekah Lodge
Members of the degree staff of Rachel Rebekah Lodge, No. 40 will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hawk, 202 Englewood avenue, on Friday, November 15.

LADIES OF LIONS' PROGRAM TUESDAY

Ladies of the Lions were entertained in the home of Mrs. Charles W. Bashaw, Glenmore boulevard, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Ellis G. Diefenderfer presided.

Speaker of the evening was Miss Hannah Parks, supervisor of special education for Lawrence and Beaver counties, who spoke on "Special Education."

She told of instances and procedures in cases where school pupils may be handicapped in their school work by physical causes such as deafness, poor eyesight, or weaknesses left by severe illness. Miss Parks was introduced by Mrs. Harry Helmick.

Refreshments were served during the social period at the close of the program.

Next meeting will be in the form of a Christmas tea and gift exchange at the home of Mrs. Diefenderfer, 911 Logan street, Tuesday, December 10.

WEINGARTNER CLASS DINNER AT CHURCH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Winton and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shuler were hosts Tuesday evening, when the Weingartner class of Epworth Methodist church gathered for a dinner in the church parlors.

Places were marked for 36 guests at tables, attractively decorated with arrangements of garden flowers.

Following the serving of a tasty meal, informal diversions were enjoyed during the remainder of the evening.

Plans were made for a Yuletide party Tuesday evening, December 10, at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sipe, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy compose the committee of arrangements.

COLLEGE CLUB GUEST PROGRAM

An audience of College club members and guests that filled the corner room of the Castleton to capacity Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock heard Dr. Robert N. Montgomery, president of Muskingum college, speak on "My Impressions of Europe."

Dr. Montgomery gave a commentary on his impressions of Europe gained during travels this past summer to London, France, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Czechoslovakia he views as the one bright spot in the European scene. With the same leaders now as before the war, a situation not true of any other government in Europe now except Russia, Czechoslovakia is looking confidently toward the future, he said.

And in establishing good relations between this country and our own lies one means of achieving understanding with Russia, which we must do, Dr. Montgomery said, provided we do not want to embroil ourselves in another war.

France is having a difficult time and it will take a long time for her to recover, he told the audience. In Paris he attended sessions of the peace conference and gave interesting sidelights on the debates there. He outlined the governmental set-up under the recently adopted constitution.

Poland is in a sad state, he found, with Warsaw a mass of brick and rubble, 90 per cent destroyed. It's need for food and clothing he termed "terrible."

Dr. Montgomery was introduced by Miss Helen Maxwell. At the conclusion of his talk, he showed colored motion picture films taken during his seminar survey in Europe.

To open the program, Mrs. George Strehler sang two solos, "On the Sea" and "I Hear a Thrush At Eve" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Fred Wedley.

Mrs. William J. Caldwell presided.

Hostesses were Miss Ruth Sample, Miss Margaret Barnes, Miss Gertrude Chapin, Mrs. Leroy Clark, Miss Sarah Dinsmore, Miss Lois Kerr, Miss Helen Maxwell, Mrs. Ruth Wallace and Miss Dorothy Young.

Next meeting will be December 10 at the Jameson hospital nurses home in the form of a Christmas party.

READING CIRCLE NOVEMBER PROGRAM

Reading Circle was entertained for its November program at the home of Mrs. W. C. Wallace, Euclid avenue, Armistice Day afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Feature of the program was a talk by Mrs. Wayne Sutzinger who gave panoramic comparisons of Armistice day and the celebrations of V-E and V-J days in a most interesting style. She used pictures as illustrative accompaniment.

In answer to roll call members gave the name of a battle or general of World War I or World War II.

During business, Mrs. Joan Z. Street, who presided, reported on the fall meeting of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs.

Members took donations of canned goods for the Almira home to the meeting.

It was reported that the club sewed at Jameson Memorial hospital November 6 and will sew again on Wednesday, November 20, from 9 to 12 in the hospital solarium. All members were urged to attend.

Miss Jane Wallace was present as a special guest.

Next meeting will be a Christmas tea December 9 at the home of Mrs. George D. Morris, 229 Fairfield avenue.

PANTHERETTE CLUB PLANS FOR PARTY

Pantherette club members met Tuesday evening in the South Mill street club rooms, and plans were made for a Christmas party, scheduled December 15, with husbands as special guests.

Mrs. Joseph Panella is the chairman.

Mrs. Robert Palus was in charge, and card playing was the pastime.

Mrs. A. J. Capezio captured the club token, and the birthday gift was received by Mrs. William DeLorenzo, from the club.

A dainty lunch was served, and a birthday cake centered the nicely arranged table. Hostesses who served were: Mrs. John Fuleo, Mrs. Columbo Clause, Mrs. Joseph Ambrose, Mrs. Frank Macchia and Mrs. Nick Ambrose.

November 26 is the next meeting, hostesses to be, Mrs. Anthony Fuleo, Mrs. Ruben Pratt, Mrs. Anthony Ambrose and Mrs. Ralph Morelli.

YUCATAN CLUB AT CASTLETON

Yucatan club members were entertained Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George F. Winter at The Castleton.

Tables of euchre were in play with prizes going to Mrs. Edna Ueber, Mrs. Quincy McBride, and David H. Long.

For the next meeting Mrs. Albert Harbison will be hostess.

TRINITY PARISH DINNER THURSDAY

From all indications a large attendance of the membership is expected at the annual fall parish dinner of Trinity Episcopal church Thursday evening, at 6:15 p.m., in the guild room. Charles E. Loh, president of the Parish Council sponsoring the event, stated that there has been an enthusiastic response and that arrangements are being made to prepare for a capacity gathering.

Mrs. George Hietsch is in charge of the dinner committee and the general program committee is headed by Robert M. Garland.

Following the dinner a special program of particular interest to the membership has been arranged.

CHURCH CIRCLES' TEA-THANKOFFERING

Annual thank offering meeting of the missionary societies of the Second U. P. church was held Monday evening, in the form of a tea, in the dining room of the church.

About 90 women were in attendance to hear the program as follows:

Devotional period, by Mrs. Leland Smith; devotional prayer, Mrs. Frank Boyard; songs, "Prayer Perfect" and "Gratitude," Mrs. Robert McCrumb; introduction of speaker, Mrs. J. C. Rose; talk, Mrs. Wendell Duff; prayer, Mrs. George Craven, and closing song.

Mrs. Robert McCrumb led the singing, accompanied by Mrs. Chester Shaffer at the piano.

Mrs. Duff has just recently returned from India, where she has charge of a girls' school, and her talk on "The New India" was instructive and enjoyed by all.

At the close of the program, refreshments were served by ladies of the Gleaners' society, assisted by girls of the Kelsey circle. The decorations, in keeping with the Thanksgiving season, were planned by the Kate A. Hill society.

Ingathering service for the thank offering will be held Sunday, December 8, at which time Dr. Glenn Reid, who has just returned from a tour of all the United Presbyterian mission fields will be the morning speaker. The evening service will be a movie entitled "We Also Receive."

A. U. R. AUXILIARY HAS PROGRAM

Tuesday evening the A. U. R. group of the Central Presbyterian church met in the church parlors for its Thanksgiving meeting led by Mrs. Walter Shaw.

Mrs. E. L. Thompson read highlights from the national study book on the work among the southern mountain people. Third and fourth chapters of "India at the Threshold" were reviewed by Mrs. Julian Miller. Mrs. Miller also gave an excellent report of the recent district meeting of Shenango Presbyterian held in Bessemer.

Mrs. Roland Peden, secretary of Hospital Sewing, gave a very fine report on the sewing and donations from members in the way of infant supplies. She read a letter of thanks from the Sage Memorial hospital at Ganado, Arizona.

As a Thanksgiving project, plans were made to give a gift in money to a needy person. Miss Margaret Lowery, Mrs. Henry Bratschie and Mrs. Walter Shaw were appointed to make plans for a service in the Almira Home.

Christmas party of the auxiliary will be held on the next regular meeting night, December 10, with Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Miss Maude Mitchell and Mrs. L. G. Miller in charge of the exchange.

At a reasonable hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Roland Peden, Mrs. Robert A. Duff and Mrs. Leon Williams.

CHAPTER 105 OES EVENING EVENT

New Castle Chapter 105, Order of the Eastern Star, card party in the main dining room of the Scottish Rite Cathedral Monday evening was attended by a crowd of approximately 250.

Cards, bridge and 500, and other games, were in play and fundraising booths were a feature. Prizes were awarded at the numerous tables.

General chairman of arrangements was Mrs. Marjorie Brinton and she was assisted by booths: Mrs. Coraetta Reid; cards, Mrs. Mary Burard; games, Miss Martha Bigley; refreshments, Mrs. Helen Hood, Mrs. Florence Gibson; tickets, Mrs. Margaret Frank.

VOLANT MOTHERS' CLUB ON FRIDAY

Mother's club of Volant will have its annual open meeting Friday evening, November 15, at 8 o'clock in the Volant Presbyterian church.

Rev. Warren A. Bugbee, pastor of the Mahoning Methodist church, this city, will speak. Appropriate music will be offered by an orchestra composed of young people from Leesburg, under the direction of Mrs. Sylvia Hassler.

Refreshments will be served by the club.

Canceled Meeting

Council of Home Economics Women of Lawrence County has cancelled its November meeting scheduled for Thursday due to death in the family of one of the members.

Next meeting will be in December at the home of Mrs. H. K. Glenn, Walpole.

SHREEVE-CARRAN LOVELY WEDDING

Before an altar banked with ferns and flowers, Miss Emma Shreeve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shreeve, Morris street, became the bride of Frank Carran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carran, of 1019 Croton avenue, at a lovely and impressive ceremony on Saturday, at 9 o'clock, in St. Vitus church, with Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her god-father, the bride was lovely in a white satin gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, a deep yolk of appliqued net, long sleeves, and a fitted bodice, ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil, edged with Chantilly lace, fell from a beaded crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations, centered with a corsage of baby mums. As her only jewelry, she wore a gold cross and chain, a gift from the groom and she carried a white lace handkerchief given to her by Mrs. Dominic Capellus.

Miss Jean Kobelka, as maid of honor, wore a powder blue gown of net, over tulle. Her heart-shaped headpiece was of blue net, and she carried a bouquet of pink Talsman roses, centered with a corsage of pink baby mums.

The bridesmaids, Angeline Carran, sister of the groom and Molly Taylor, wore gowns of yellow net over tulle and neccessaire of yellow net. They carried bouquets of bronze color Talsman roses, centered with a corsage of yellow baby mums.

The bride remembered her attendants with a gold locket.

Pat Yacabony served the groom as best man and ushering were Louis D'Angelo and Sam Memo.

After a congratulatory period, a breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents, with guests numbering 35 present. Pink and white was the theme carried out, with the table centered with the large wedding cake.

Aids in serving were: Mrs. Dominic Capellus, Mrs. Wilbur Langland, Mrs. Ernest Germani and Mrs. Charles Carran.

Later a dinner was served to 30 guests at a suburban tea room.

Martin Requests UN Headquarters For Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The United Nations was asked today by Gov. Edward Martin to establish headquarters in Pennsylvania.

Judge I. Stauffer Oliver, of the Philadelphia Common Pleas Court, was slated to deliver today to Dr. Eduardo Suleta Angel, of Columbia, chairman of the UN headquarters commission at Lake Success, N. Y., a letter from the governor promising and should either of two Philadelphia sites be selected as the capital.

"The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania offers to join with the City of Philadelphia in devoting to the United Nations, without cost, either of the two sites proposed by the city, if selected by the United Nations for its headquarters," the governor wrote.

"The Quaker City sites proposed were in Roxborough and the Belmont plateau section of Fairmount Park. Such matters as jurisdiction, title, police control, civil and criminal processes, will be handled in whatever manner is satisfactory to the United States and the United Nations," Governor Martin added.

"You can be assured that the United Nations, its personnel, visitors and all persons transacting business with it, will be most welcome in our Commonwealth," the governor said.

The governor pointed out that legislative action would be required to enable the UN to establish headquarters in the Keystone state but expressed confidence that approval would be granted promptly.

The 1945 General Assembly approved a resolution urging that the world peace organization's headquarters be located at Philadelphia.

Oliver conferred yesterday with Governor Martin and James H. Duff, governor-elect.

High Court Fails To Give Decisions

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The Supreme Court returned to the bench Tuesday after a two week interval for the writing of decisions but announced no action on cases argued during the first month of the new term.

This indicated failure of members of the high tribunal to decide some 20 cases presented last month. The court handed down a series of routine orders granting or denying petitions for review of lower court decisions.

Observers anticipated that the opinions which had been expected to be announced today would offer a clue to the status of the "feud" between Associate Justices Robert H. Jackson and Hugo Black.

There were strong indications that the relations between Jackson and Black, whose enmity flared into the open last spring, had thus far been amicable.

Dr. Thomas R. Uber Opens Office Today

Served In Armed Forces And Was Discharged As Major Of Medical Corps

Dr. Thomas R. Uber, an urologist discharged some months ago from the armed forces, today opened offices in the Guerard building, on North Mill street.

He is a graduate of New Castle senior high school, Westminster college and received his degree of doctor of medicine from the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania in 1937. After his internship in Geisinger Memorial hospital of Danville, Pa., he was made resident there in surgery and urology, later serving as a fellow in surgery and urology in the Cleveland Clinic. The following two years he served as resident in urology in the Boston City hospital. From there he entered the armed forces as a lieutenant in the medical corps.

Dr. Uber served 21 months in the European theater of war, earning five campaign stars with the 77th Evacuation hospital. After VE Day he was in charge of a group of captured German military hospitals in Selb, Germany, and Asch, Czechoslovakia. Back in the states, he served as urologist in the Newton D. Baker General hospital, and as chief of urology at Ashford general hospital, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. From there he was discharged in March 1946, with the rank of major.

Veteran Railway Official Called

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—John J. Pelley, president of the Association Railroad, died Tuesday at Doctors hospital in Washington.

Pelley, who was 68, had been a patient at the hospital for two weeks. The cause of his death was not immediately announced by hospital authorities.

The veteran railway official, who rose from track laborer to president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, had headed the railway association since 1934.

Pelley, a native of Anna, Ill., maintained home in Washington and New York. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. W. D. Van Schalkwyk.

He was a former president of the Central of Georgia Railway and Ocean Steamship Company of Savannah and a former general manager of the Illinois Central Railroad.

WORKING MOTHERS

"I have an opportunity of getting a job in a shop near me. The pay is good; and while my husband is making good money, I also would like to help increase the family income. The difficulty is that I have three children from 11 to 15 years old. Do you think it would be dangerous for me to leave them to their own resources? They come home for lunch and finally at three p. m. If I take this job, I will not return home until seven p. m. Do you think I should be neglecting my duties as a mother?"

Answer: My personal opinion is that you would be definitely neglecting your duty as a mother if you were to take this job. Of course, if you had no other alternative you would be forced to take this chance; but since your husband is making ample money, it is not imperative that you add to the family income. There is still great demand for workers. And it is tempting to help swell the family exchequer.

Your first duty, however, is toward your young children. There is an astounding rise in juvenile crime as a result of lack of parental guidance. The exigencies of war have had a disastrous effect on family life. Homes have been broken up because of the older boys going into the Army and father and mother having war jobs. Teen age children, in these homes, have been left to roam the streets and seek amusement where they can find it.

Yes, I reiterate women like you should stay at home and take care of your youngsters, unless you have a mother or responsible sister to take over efficiently your job during your absence.

Question: I have received an announcement of a small wedding to which only close friends were invited and announcements sent to acquaintances. Does this require a gift?

Answer: No. Announcements require no gifts, nor any reply whatsoever.

Opposition To New British Proposals Seen

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The labor government's proposal to extend its nationalization of basic industry to inland transport and electricity provoked the conservative opposition today into angry resistance.

Informative political circles said the conservatives will charge the government with pandering to the prejudices of its supporters instead of directing all efforts to productive efficiency.

From the left, too, came opposition to a legislative proposal enunciated by King George VI in behalf of the cabinet when he opened the second session of parliament yesterday.

Socialist members in the labor benches indicated they would move to table the measure to inaugurate peacetime conscription.

Churchill To Speak

In the debate which lies ahead it is expected that Winston Churchill, blunt leader of the conservatives, will elaborate on his criticism of the strength of Russian military forces in Europe.

Churchill's reply to the king's address at the opening of parliament foreshadowed also a renewal of conservative attacks on the government's policy toward Palestine and India and the Potsdam declaration for Germany.

The wartime prime minister charged that the Russian army, "based upon a despotic government," dominates more than a third of Europe. He added:

"The Soviet military frontier is on the Elbe and it is impossible to forecast what the future and the face of France will be."

The five principal virtues urged by the ancient Chinese philosopher, Confucius, were kindness, uprightness, decorum, wisdom and truth.

Funeral Directors From Six Counties Meet At Dinner
Event Here
Joseph B. Leyde, New Castle, was named by the nominating committee as the candidate for the governorship of District one of the Pennsylvania Funeral Directors Association Tuesday, when the district held its annual meeting in The Castleton hotel.
The election will be by mail, with the results being announced in the spring.
About 65 funeral directors from Lawrence, Beaver, Butler, Mercer, Crawford and Erie counties attended the district meeting which concluded with a dinner Tuesday night.
Charles D. R. Kindt, state president of the organization, was present at the district meeting and spoke, as did Lewis W. Price, executive secretary, Donald Behnhauser, past president, and Louis Burton, district governor, who retires this year.
Among the subjects discussed in forum meetings of the association were: "Accounting Principles As Applied to Funeral Home Management"; "Public Relations for the Funeral Director"; "Unemployment Tax"; "Transportation"; and "Legislative Program".

Schools Continue Stamp, Bond Sales

Seven Public Schools Have Total Of $1,614 During September, October

Seven New Castle schools are continuing bond sales, with a total of $1,614.15 during the months of September and October, stamps and bonds chairman, Miss Nannie L. Mitchell, reported today.

Although this sum is much lower than the amount of bonds and stamps sold in the public schools during the war, it is surprisingly high in comparison to the way bond sales have fallen off in other places.

Mahoning school has the highest pupil average, 94 cents, with a total of $583.50. Arthur McGillis' average of 94 cents is close behind; the total there is $346.05. Seventy-eight cents per pupil at Highland school brought the total to $233.75, and 81 cents gave the school a total of $292.10.

Pittsburgh added up to $46.10, and 12 cents per pupil at Croton gave a total of $47.65. Lincoln-Garfield's average was nine cents per pupil, and its total $85, but during the war this school was consistently one of the highest.

Altogether, the schools have a total sales record of $858,770.10, Miss Mitchell added.

Joseph B. Leyde Is Nominee For District Head

Funeral Directors From Six Counties Meet At Dinner Event Here

Joseph B. Leyde, New Castle, was named by the nominating committee as the candidate for the governorship of District one of the Pennsylvania Funeral Directors Association Tuesday, when the district held its annual meeting in The Castleton hotel.

The election will be by mail, with the results being announced in the spring.

About 65 funeral directors from Lawrence, Beaver, Butler, Mercer, Crawford and Erie counties attended the district meeting which concluded with a dinner Tuesday night.

Charles D. R. Kindt, state president of the organization, was present at the district meeting and spoke, as did Lewis W. Price, executive secretary, Donald Behnhauser, past president, and Louis Burton, district governor, who retires this year.

Among the subjects discussed in forum meetings of the association were: "Accounting Principles As Applied to Funeral Home Management"; "Public Relations for the Funeral Director"; "Unemployment Tax"; "Transportation"; and "Legislative Program".

At the next meeting in the church, Tuesday evening, December 10, there will be election of officers. Mrs. Q. E. Davy, Mrs. W. Dibley and Mrs. George Emerick will be hostesses.

Mahoning School Education-Book Week

Parents and friends of pupils of Mahoning school are invited to attend the school this week, as it is Education Week. They are welcome to visit the various classrooms while the study period is in session.

This is also Book Week. It was introduced at the school on Tuesday morning by a group of 4-1 pupils.

The group passed a brief visit to several of the other classes to display a few of the school library new books, and reciting short poems, appropriate to books and libraries.

Several children wore costumes in accordance with their verses recited. In keeping with the book week theme, the pupils framed an arch of hands as the line entered each room, which represented that books are bridges.

The book week introduction was well received by all who witnessed it. The performance may be repeated Thursday morning for those who did not see it.

Bridal Party Dinner At Zumpella Home

Mr. and Mrs. James Zumpella of 105 South Cedar street entertained the bridal party at a splendid luncheon Sunday noon honoring their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Maiorano, a bride and groom of October 26, upon their return from their wedding trip. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Mike Zumpella, Mrs. Ernest Zumpella and Mrs. James Cennamo.

Places were set for 25 guests at an attractively appointed table, graced with a three-tiered cake.

Following the dinner the group enjoyed dancing and viewing the wedding gifts. Mike Cea entertained with his one-man band.

The bride will be remembered as Miss Connie Zumpella. The couple will reside at 105 South Cedar street.

Phones To Mother From Honolulu

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Conti of 216 West Wabash avenue have received a phone message from their son, Anthony "Dodo" Conti, located in Honolulu, stating that he, his wife and baby expect to be home about the end of this month.

The maritime tie up has hindered them getting home. They will try and come by plane to San Francisco, Calif.

Tony had his wife call a few words and the baby to cry for grandmother. The phone call was of long duration, still Tony did not mind the cost as he had not heard his mother's voice for two and a half years.

Judge Braham Heard By Lions

Local Jurist Discusses Outlook For Future Peace At Armistice Season

CONDITION OF WORLD ANALYZED

In an address to members of the New Castle Lions club, at their noon luncheon meeting, in The Castleton, Tuesday, Judge W. Walter Braham, discussed and analyzed world conditions, particularly as they effect the future peace of the world.

Judge Braham stated that Hitler was imbued with the theory advanced by German geopoliticians, that whoever controlled the heartland of Europe, namely Northern Asia and Eastern Europe, would control the world. Many people believed this, and it seems, apparently, he asserted, that Russia has learned of this theory and is pressing outward to control this area.

The Russian program is important because it seems motivated by the economic idea of the emancipation of man. There is nothing new about this, but seemingly, he stated, a lot of people in the United States pay more attention to the program of Russia than they do to that of their own government.

Nations Seek Bases

With the discovery of the atomic bomb, there seems to be a concerted effort on the part of certain nations to control the bases from which these atomic bombs can be launched. England wants control of the land south of Egypt in Africa; the United States controls the islands in the Pacific, he pointed out.

There seems to be two courses open to us in America, but restraint, wisdom, and toleration are needed. We must not say that Russia is our enemy and must be conquered, nor should we say that they are too great a power and should be appeased. Russia has lived in a state of freedom for only 25 or 30 years. Prior to that she lived under the corrupt old monarchy which should have been destroyed years before.

However, we have given Russia cause for suspicion of our motives. The United States had an expedition in Russia at the close of the last war, and Russia has a right to be suspicious of our present intentions.

People Seek Freedom

It is important to be remembered, Judge Braham stated, that people all over the world want to be free. We in America have the greatest freedom of all. Theoretically, the idea of communism is ideal, but under this system, when men get tired and want to quit working, they must be forced to work, and it does not work out. If Communism cannot be made to work without fear and force, it is no good.

America must not give up the source of its strength, he stated, our present form of democracy. Our great weapon is the love of our people for freedom. If we could show the Russians they could get a higher standard of living under our system, we believe they would all be for it. The ferment seems to be working in Russia right now, namely the desire of men to run their own affairs.

Under democracy we get strong men to run our affairs, and we can change our government when we have a mind to. The power of the people lies in their ability to change things. Russia does not have this.

The thing for us to remember, is that we have freedom. If we keep this uppermost in our minds, the future will take care of itself, he stated in conclusion.

ROB PARKED AUTO

Don Latimer, 402 East Washington street, reported to police headquarters he parked his car in the rear of the Marquis-Hinrich service station, North Mill street several nights ago and his car which was unlocked, according to police who got the report yesterday, was robbed of a bed-spread, several pairs of trousers and condensed milk.

SEEK RABID DOG IN PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Police continued a thorough search for a reportedly rabid dog in the Elliot district of Pittsburgh today and warned children and residents to beware.

The Animal Rescue League sent four trucks in search of the dog and police aided with a patrol car yesterday in a fruitless search. No persons were reported to have been bitten by the animal but it has killed two cats and a dog and bitten other dogs, league officials said.

Retirement System Asked At Court House

County Commissioners Presented With Petitions Signed By All Employees

CITE FACT THAT OTHERS HAVE IT

Employees at the court house, including the officials of all the various offices, have signed petitions which have been presented to the Board of County Commissioners, asking that a retirement system be established by Lawrence county.

No action has as yet been taken in the matter, the commissioners having taken the matter under advisement and are studying the proposal. It is felt by the commissioners that something should be done, inasmuch as the plan has been adopted in other counties.

The text of the petition reads as follows:

"To the Board of County Commissioners of Lawrence County, Pennsylvania:

"Greetings:

"Whereas, it appearing that the retirement provisions of the Federal Social Security Act do not apply to municipal employees.

"And that to remedy this omission the General Assembly of Pennsylvania by statute, P. L. 371, 1943, as amended by P. L. 121, 1945, has provided for the establishment of a retirement system for all municipal employees in the commonwealth, including counties of the sixth class;

"And it appearing that all counties of the sixth class have such systems in operation under laws similar to the act of 1943; and that retirement systems have long been in operation for state employees and school employees, and for employees of all the larger corporations of the county;

"Now, therefore, we the undersigned employees of the county of Lawrence respectfully petition your honorable board to take appropriate action under the 'Municipal Employees Retirement Act' to establish a retirement system for employees of Lawrence county."

INSURANCE COMPANY SUED

Suit has been filed by Ernest Fumari of Ellwood City vs. the Mutual Benefit, Health and Accident Association of Omaha to recover the sum of $1,200 alleged due to the plaintiff under the provisions of a policy sold by the defendant company. It is charged by Fumari, who resides at 415 Franklin avenue, Ellwood City, that after being in force for 30 days, the company will pay indemnity for any illness which confines the beneficiary to the house requiring the doctor's care, in the sum of $50 per month, not to exceed 24 months.

When demand for payment was made by the plaintiff, it was refused, the bill of complaint charges.

DIVORCES GRANTED

Eight decrees in divorce were handed down by the court Tuesday, two of them following hearings before Judge W. Walter Braham and six before Judge Lamoree.

Decrees handed down by Judge Braham were on the petitions of Shirley Mae Fleeger vs. Roland E. Fleeger, charging cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities to the person, and Russell C. McCurdy vs. Rosella M. McCurdy, charging indignities.

The decrees handed down by Judge Lamoree were as follows: Ruth Eddis Reynolds Miller vs. Marsh A. Miller, desertion. Lillian M. Wallace vs. Robert W. Wallace, indignities.

Eva Torsello vs. Anthony F. Torsello, indignities. Sophia Elizabeth Moore vs. William David Moore, indignities. Harlie E. Shull vs. Grace Anna Shull, desertion.

Rose J. Camanite vs. Albert C. Camanite, indignities.

TAX APPEAL DENIED

In an opinion handed down by Judge W. Walter Braham, Tuesday, on the appeal of Fisher Brothers from an assessment on its lot and building at South Croton avenue and Mill street for tax purposes in the sum of $31,000, the appeal of the petitioner was denied.

The opinion states that "When the case was called for oral argument, the right to oral argument was waived and an agreement entered into to submit the case on briefs. No new briefs have been furnished. Many of the findings relate to the assessments of other nearby properties, backing either oral argument or briefs on these exceptions, the court is without light as to the specific basis, if any, for plaintiff's exception. The oral adjudication, however, has been reviewed and no error found. Therefore, the court in a final order directs the appeal be dismissed at the cost of the petitioner and the assessment is confirmed."

La Guardia's Plea Partially Refused

American UN Delegation Disagrees With UNRRA Chief Upon Policy

By ED ALLEN (U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The American delegation to the United Nations tentatively rejected Tuesday the main point of UNRRA Director General P. H. LaGuardia's plea for international distribution of relief food supplies after UNRRA ends Jan. 1.

Although the delegation's policy is by no means firmly fixed as yet, the delegates at a caucus in the Hotel Pennsylvania this morning are understood to have favored appropriations on a national basis.

However, they are as anxious as LaGuardia to avoid letting relief food shipments be used for "imperialistic" or "Power Politics" purposes. They discussed ways of getting advice from an international committee or agency so the supplies will go where they are most desperately needed.

They are understood to have agreed with LaGuardia that no new international organization is needed to succeed UNRRA, and that the food can be moved more rapidly without setting up a brand new body.

But they now are believed to lean to the idea that the job can best be done by direct, national appropriations, perhaps after consultation with the UN secretariat or some advisory committee named by the general assembly.

LaGuardia in his prepared speech for the UN economic and financial committee yesterday bitterly assailed as "old-fashioned" and "imperialistic" the idea of nations picking and choosing recipients of their generosity on a political basis. He specifically criticized what he understood was to be the American policy.

However, he deleted that part of his speech when he delivered it, confining his denunciation of "Power Politics" to a more general statement without mentioning the U. S. by name. Afterwards, he told International News Service he made the deletions because he believed the U. S. ultimately would follow the right policy.

State Chairman

Of GOP To Stay On Job Till June

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—(INS.) Republican State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor was planning today to remain in office until at least June of next year when his term expires.

Taylor, a state senator from Dauphin county and president pro tempore of the upper chamber, scotched reports that he would resign in the near future.

"The results of the election should be a convincing answer to anyone who feels that I am about to step out," Taylor asserted.

"We have never had greater party unity," he added. "The co-operation of our county chairmen and county workers has put us on the road to victory in 1947 and 1948."

There were indications that Taylor would be re-elected president pro tempore of the Senate when the General Assembly convenes in January.

He served as state chairman from 1934 to 1937. Taylor was returned to the post four years ago after a five-year absence. He was elected a state senator in 1940 and re-elected two years ago.

Col. Mitchell Gives

Excellent Rating To Grove City Unit

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 13.—Grove City National Guard unit, Battery C, Two Hundred and Twenty-ninth Field Artillery, received a preliminary rating of "excellent" when Lieut. Col. G. F. Mitchell, commanding officer of the Two Hundred and Twenty-ninth Field Artillery, examined personnel and records, Army facilities, property accounts and administrative procedure recently.

Under the command of Capt. George Keller, the local unit is awaiting the final test by regular Army officers before final and official Federal recognition is granted.

Captain Keller held similar rank in the Marine Corps during the early fighting in the Pacific.

WAA ANNOUNCES

WEST VIRGINIA PLANT FOR SALE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—(INS.) The regional War Assets administrator announced today that a plant near Fairmont, W. Va., operated during the war by Westinghouse Electric, has been offered for sale or lease by the WAA.

Designed for production of radio transmitting tubes, radio equipment and related electronic equipment, the plant has a total reported cost to the government of $3,374,000.

The main manufacture building is a one-story and mezzanine structure containing approximately 100,000 square feet of industrial floor space. Also included are several storage structures and a cooling tower of 100,000-gallon capacity.

Scrap jumped $2.50 per ton Tuesday, following the removal of price controls, a spokesman said.

Steel production had been seriously threatened by a shortage of scrap because of the OPA low-price policy. Scrap is expected to begin moving from storage yards where there has been an abundance, spokesmen declared.

The $2.50 advance placed the price of No. 1 and No. 2 heavy melting scrap at Pittsburgh at $22.50 a ton.

JUMP IN SCRAP

PRICES WILL AID STEEL PRODUCTION

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS.) A "boom" in steel production was predicted today in Pittsburgh by industry spokesmen following a boost in steel scrap prices.

Scrap jumped $2.50 per ton Tuesday, following the removal of price controls, a spokesman said.

Steel production had been seriously threatened by a shortage of scrap because of the OPA low-price policy. Scrap is expected to begin moving from storage yards where there has been an abundance, spokesmen declared.

FINANCE OFFICERS CONVENING FRIDAY

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS.)—Municipal and local finance officers of Pennsylvania today were scheduled to convene their 11th annual meeting Friday at State College.

Methods of meeting increased local operating costs were slated to high-light discussions. Gasoline tax collections, sales taxes for municipal purposes, tax collection code changes, municipal sharing of the state utility taxes were listed for consideration.

Speakers will include Carl H. Charters, comptroller of the Port of New York authority; Robert F. Murray Jr., president of the Pennsylvania Economy League; and Miner Phillips, executive director of the Municipal Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada.

RELEASE SURPLUS MEDICINAL LIQUOR

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—(INS.)—Tipples perked up today at news that pre-war whiskey has just been sold for $1.20 a quart.

The War Assets Administration disposed of 200,000 quarts of surplus army medicinal whiskey to eight "monopoly" states where liquor control boards operate.

Frank L. McNamee, regional WAA director, announced that Pennsylvania bought 72,000 quarts of bourbon and rye whiskey which cost the government 95 cents a quart.

The offering was made to all 17 "monopoly" states, but nine declined to purchase. The whiskey, originally packed for use by armed forces overseas, was allocated by WAA to states nearest the stocks on hand.

RELIEF PAYMENTS

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—(INS.)—State Treasurer Ramsey S. Black today reported that relief payments totaling $236,391 were made to 26,379 Pennsylvanians during the week ended November 6.

The previous week's disbursements amounted to $37,368 to 26,440 needy persons, he added.

Republican Women Of Pennsylvania Are In Convention

Election Victory Celebration To Be Feature Of Sessions In Harrisburg

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—(INS)—An election victory celebration featuring Gov. Edward Martin, U. S. senator-elect, and the 28-member G.O.P. congressional delegation was scheduled to punctuate today the 24th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women at Harrisburg.

The governor, victor by an overwhelming majority in last week's landslide, will make his first post-election address during the evening session in the forum of the State Education building.

His speech will be followed by discussion of aims and responsibilities of the Keystone State's Republican congressional bloc.

Speakers will be re-elected Congressmen Richard E. Simpson, Huntington; Leon Gavin, Oil City, and Samuel McConnell, Penn. Wyndham, and Hugh D. Scott, Philadelphia, newly elected. McConnell was slated to discuss possible amendments to the Wagner Act.

Attorney General James H. Duff, governor-elect, will direct a similar victors' rally at the close of the three-day meeting tomorrow night. Pennsylvania's 34 newly elected state senators and 171 House members will appear on the speakers' platform.

Addresses were scheduled to be made by Congressman-elect John Davis Lodge of Connecticut and Louis Bromfield, noted author and conservationist.

Approximately 1,500 delegates converged on the capital city yesterday to open their most jubilant meeting in a dozen years.

The first assembly was highlighted by discussions on maintaining improved working conditions and privileges secured for women during the war.

Book Week Mystery At Last Is Solved

It's An Aid To Christmas Shopping. Reporter Finds Out This Morning

"What's the idea of Book Week?" asked the reporter looking around at the display tables covered with books and at the gay posters tempting readers to try something new. "Can't people read books any more?"

"Yes, of course, the librarian agreed. 'But Book Week is really sort of a Christmas project. It was started 24 years ago, emphasizing children's books so that people would have time to select books for their children. Now, the adults think it's a good idea to have their own books included on the lists.'"

"But Christmas is six weeks away—no one wants to buy books now."

"It is later than you think," quoted the librarian. "If you put off buying books, you will find depleted stocks, with no time left to reorder from the publisher."

"But will the library help me select them?"

"Now you've discovered exactly what Book Week is all about..."

"Well, suppose I have problem persons on my gift list," the reporter persisted. "An aunt who likes antiques, a friend who is convalescing and needs amusement, a brother who likes books on current events..."

"... does the library specialize to that extent?"

"Just look around and see. But don't wait too long to look... remember, Christmas is coming sooner than you think."

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—A light-fingered jewel thief was sought by police today in the disappearance of a $5,000 bracelet from the arm of Mrs. George Washington Kavanaugh at the Metropolitan Opera opening.

Mrs. Kavanaugh reported the loss of the bracelet to police and said it apparently had been taken while she walked through the lobby to her box. Her body-guard was absent from her side at the time. Mrs. Kavanaugh wore jewels valued at $50,000. The bracelet was one of five she was wearing.

Hopes For Decision In Jap Reparations

Eastern Affairs Director Has Reason To Hope For Early Decision

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—John Carter Vincent, director of Far Eastern affairs in the state department, declared Tuesday that he has "reason to hope" for a decision on the Japanese reparations problem "before the end of this year."

Speaking before a convention of the foreign trade council, Vincent said that this problem has been the chief problem in planning Japan's postwar economy. He hazarded a "guess" that private trade with Japan "will be possible some time during the latter half of next year, possibly sooner."

Vincent also advocated a principle to govern both private and governmental loans abroad in discussing the economic position in China. He said:

"I believe it is unsound to invest private or public capital in countries where there is a widespread corruption in business and official channels, where a government is wasting its substance on excessive armament, where the threat or fact of civil war exists, where tendencies toward government monopolization exclude American business, and where undemocratic concepts of government are controlling."

Criticizing the expenditure of 80 per cent of the Chinese budget on armaments, Vincent said that country's position has continued to deteriorate. He added that it is a "misapprehension" to describe Gen. George C. Marshall's efforts to bring peace in that country as solely political.

THE REASONS BEHIND OUR REQUEST

Wait Until Next Season Before Changing to Gas Heat

The unprecedented requests for changing to gas heat threaten to tax our transmission and distribution systems beyond the limits of good service. This comes at a time when it is impossible to secure the pipe, fittings and compressors necessary to handle the overwhelming demand.

WHY THE GREAT SWING TO GAS HEAT?

For years gas has been sold as a heating fuel of luxury value. Numerous tangibles, other than fuel cost, were included in its value to win public acceptance. Now the rise in price of other fuels makes gas heat the most economical today on a straight fuel cost basis in nearly all areas in this general part of the country.

MATERIAL AND LABOR SHORTAGE

You who have been trying to buy an automobile, soap chips, white shirts or other scarce items readily will understand our position. We and our affiliates are trying to spend some 50 million dollars to improve the facilities for bringing gas from the abundant fields of supply to your premises. Because of the dire shortage of necessary materials and skilled manpower to install them, only a fraction of this 50 million can be spent this year.

TEXAS GAS

The Tennessee Gas Transmission Corporation, which owns a line bringing a large percentage of our gas from Texas fields, have plans for adding to the capacity of their system for several hundred miles. When completed this will increase substantially the amounts of gas they can deliver to us.

NEW SUPPLY FOR EXTREME WEATHER

We are installing a total of 71 tanks of 30,000 gallons each which will be filled with propane (liquid petroleum gas of a type commonly used by families living beyond gas lines in rural areas) which will blend with our gas. The project will make available the equivalent of 30 million cubic feet of gas a day. This supply is intended for use only in extreme weather. It will exhaust itself in a few days of use and our suppliers will require months to refill the tanks.

The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company has recently completed 54 miles of 20" pipe line to provide an addition to the gas supply, but other contemplated projects were not completed due to the inability to obtain necessary pipe and equipment.

SOME NEIGHBORHOOD LINES OVERLOADED

A survey just completed has disclosed that more gas heating installations have been made in some areas than the capacity of our street mains can serve adequately. Only major insurmountable problems are mentioned here. There are many, many lesser ones.

HEATING CONTRACTORS AND DEALERS COOPERATING

These reasons have prompted the decision to discontinue the sale of gas heating equipment to those having other forms of heating for the coming season. Responsible heating contractors and dealers are cooperating by adopting this plan.

INDUSTRIAL CURTAILMENTS LIKELY

This winter, during periods of severe weather, it most likely will be necessary to curtail industries using gas in their manufacturing processes. All large users of gas for industry have been notified of this possible condition, thus giving them time to make other provisions. Even with this relief, it is possible that some areas will experience low gas pressures if outside temperatures become too low.

PROTECTION FOR G. I. HOUSING

We have a dual obligation to G. I. veterans and the Civilian Production Administration. With both, we intend to cooperate fully by making gas service available to permanent new construction. Through this conservation program, installation materials and resources can be made available for new buildings.

DON'T BE MISLED

By giving you and our other customers reasons for this immediate action, we hope to have the same support from you that heating contractors have promised. Let no one persuade you that the facts are other than here stated. The delay in converting your present heating system to gas until a more favorable time is the best protection of service to your community.

Career Theme Stressed At High School

Dr. R. F. Galbreath Addresses Student Assembly On 'Life's Choices'

In senior high school this week, which is Education Week, careers are being stressed in classes, home rooms and special programs will emphasize the career theme.

Teachers plan to mention the value of their subject in relation to careers. Home room teachers have put up bulletins with a career slant. On Tuesday Dr. R. F. Galbreath spoke at a meeting of seniors and juniors on "Choices for Life's Happiness." In high school, he said, young people must make decisions about religion, about how much more education he wishes, about what type of person he wants to be, what type of girl he wants to marry, what type of home he will have, what work he will choose in order to be of service to the community.

This morning C. N. Shellato of the Shenango Pottery addressed an assembly of sophomores and juniors in a talk pertinent to the selection of a career.

New Atom Chief Issues Warning

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—(INS)—David E. Lillenthal, chairman of the atomic energy commission, left a warning today that state and municipal governments must take the lead in fighting a trend to over-centralization of government.

Addressing the national conference of government of the National Municipal League, Lillenthal declared:

"Overcentralized administration is a hazard to democracy...The fundamental solution is to crowd more, not less, responsibility into the community." The commission heard added:

"In overcentralization, one of two things ultimately happens: Either distrustful citizens...refuse to yield to the national government the powers which it should have in the common interest, or an arrogant central government imposes its will by force..."

OPA Nearing End, Dismiss Many

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The Office of Price Administration, for five years the symbol of a controlled national economy, was well on its way toward oblivion today.

These steps were taken towards the agency's liquidation:

1. Ten thousand of OPA's 35,000 employees received notices that they will lose their jobs Dec. 12 due to the closing of local price control boards last week.

2. About 11,000 more, no longer needed because of the lifting of controls on everything but rents, sugar and rice, were told by Price Administrator Paul Porter that they can expect their notices on Dec. 1.

3. Porter met with top advisers and representatives of the Bureau of the Budget to consider plans for transfer of the 14,000 remaining workers needed to administer rent, sugar and rice controls to existing agencies or a new one.

Youth Accused Of Aiding Auto Thieves' Escape

SOMERSET, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—A 16-year-old Somerset county youth today was accused of aiding the two convicted automobile thieves in their daring Monday night escape from the Somerset county jail.

Sheriff John I. Smith said that Wilmer Kimmel purchased the four back saw blades which William Hinkle, 19, of Yerington, Nev., and Jack Smith, 22, of Hollywood, Calif., used to saw their way to liberty.

The sheriff said that Kimmel occupied an adjacent cell to the escapees until his release 10 days ago. He had been arrested as a suspect in connection with the theft of a gun.

According to Sheriff Smith, Hinkle and Smith pulled the saw blades up to their cell Sunday with a rope made from a torn sheet. By Monday, the sheriff added, the two convicted men, allegedly sought in a dozen states in connection with car thefts and burglaries, managed to saw through two bars and then drop 20 feet to the ground.

A general alarm for the arrest of the two men has been sounded.

'Y' Official Here To Advise Board On Reconstruction Fund

Campaign For Funds For Leadership Training Overseas To Open In January

MISS ETHEL HILLER

Miss Ethel Hiller, a representative of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. in New York City, is in town today to consult with the New Castle Y. W. C. A. board concerning the "round-the-world-Y. W. C. A.-reconstruction-fund" campaign for $2,000,000, which will open in January and continue through that month and February.

The fund will provide leadership training for women of 30 countries through a three-year emergency program. Because 25 million men were casualties during the war, women over seas have a responsibility to take leadership in the political, economic, and spiritual rehabilitation of the world. The American Y. W. C. A. is being asked to train these potential leaders in the 30 countries.

Miss Hiller will meet with the board members at 8 o'clock.

Plaingrove Seniors Will Present Play

'Too Many Relatives' Will Be Presented In High School Auditorium Friday Evening

Plaingrove high school will present its annual senior play, "Too Many Relatives" in the high school auditorium on Friday evening, November 15, at 8 o'clock.

The play, "Too Many Relatives" is the story of a newly married couple keeping the secret from a woman-hating uncle and a love-loving aunt, both of whom are deaf. Complications ensue when they are told conflicting stories but later come to visit the newlyweds at the same time. Sisters, bashful beaux, criminals and policemen further entangle the situation.

The characters in the presentation are as follows: Earl McBride as Harry Savage, a young writer; Esther Hedglin as Mable Savage, his recent bride; Evaline Minor as Mrs. Donnelly, their landlady; Ethel Mae Flack as Gracie Evans, Mable's sister; Albert Hammerschmidt as Jasper Wilkins, her bashful beau; Walter Pizczek as Officer Butterfield, a poetic policeman; Mary Cunningham as Lucy, a maid; Ruth Cotton as Ermintrude Evans, Mable's aunt; Wilbur McNulty as Otto B. Savage, Harry's uncle, and Glenn Holman as Smokey McKee, a desperate criminal.

Between acts, there will be musical selections. Nancy Scott will present vocal solos, accompanied by Mary Kate Elliot, and piano selections by Marjorie Foster.

Directors are Miss Helen L. Ray and James Cornelius. Cast and directors are working hard to make the play a success.

OPERA CROWD IN PRE-WAR RAIMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The war seems to be over as far as the opera is concerned.

At least, ermine and mink and scads of jewelry far outweighed military brass at last night's 31st opening of the metropolitan opera season at the Academy of Music.

Everything was pre-war stuff including, of course, the opera—Verdi's "Aida".

BURGULARS REVEAL 'EYE FOR FASHION'

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Police today sought burglars with an "eye for style" following theft of neckties valued at $50,000 from the Countess Mare, Inc., men's shop.

The thieves also got $2,000 in cash and merchandise valued at $25,000 in addition to the neckties. Police said the burglars apparently entered and left by the front door of the shop using skeleton keys.

New Robes Ordered For Thaddeus Choir

Gra-Y Basketball Team Will Be Organized Again This Year At East Side School

Boys and girls of the Thaddeus Stevens Grade school on the East Side, are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their brand new choir robes which have been ordered from a Chicago firm. Forty robes have been ordered by the music department of the school.

The old robes, which have been in use for a number of years, according to Principal C. Glenn McCracken, have become quite threadbare and the new robes will be a welcome asset to the music department. The robes are expected in time for use in the school's Thanksgiving and Christmas programs which will be presented in the city.

Assistant principal, Peter Grizzle, announced today, that the Gra-Y the school's sport organization, will be active again this year. Plans are being formulated for a basketball team, which will compete with other grade school teams of the city. Mr. Grizzle took over the supervision of the school's sport program when Miss Laura Cowmeadow, former teacher at the school left for other duties.

Last Saturday, 86 students and five teachers from the school went to Pittsburgh via bus, where they enjoyed a sight seeing tour of the smoky city's historic spots.

Among the many places visited on the trip, were, Allegheny Airport Phipps Conservatory, Highland Park Zoo, Buhl Planetarium and Carnegie Museum.

Special emphasis on thrift is taking place in the school, with a climax program to be held on the day before Pearl Harbor Day, Friday, December 6.

Science Seeks Safe Exposure To Radiation

Long Range Program To Develop Counter-Measure Is Inaugurated

By FRANCES MUSIC (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Dr. Alexander Hollaender, U. S. public health service official, revealed Tuesday that scientists at Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic energy laboratories are attempting to develop counter-measures against radioactivity.

Hollaender, principal bio-physicist of the service's national institute of health, disclosed by telephone from Oak Ridge, this expansion of a previously announced program to determine how much radiation workers in the field of atomic energy can stand safely.

For Peacetime Use
Now directing the research program to speed peacetime use of atomic energy by removing dangers of radiation, Hollaender, as head bio-physicist assigned to the Clinton Laboratories, asserted:

"Our ultimate goal is to understand the mechanism of radiation effects on living cells; learn to protect man from these effects; and to develop countermeasures against them."

He disclosed that the program will be long range, saying that about 40 scientists are expected to participate in the program in the near future and that the number will be increased to about 150 within five years.

The U. S. public health service and the Monsanto Chemical Co., operator of Clinton Laboratories for the government, have said that considerable study must be done to determine the maximum safe exposure to nuclear radiation for workers before atomic energy can be used industrially.

Radiation Victims
It is estimated that of the 35,000 Japanese killed in Nagasaki and of the 70,000 to 80,000 dead at Hiroshima as result of the atomic bombings, 15 to 20 per cent died from radiation sickness.

A twenty million dollar nuclear research laboratory is being constructed near Schenectady, N. Y., where an extensive engineering project to develop atomic power plants will be undertaken. Known as the Knolls Atomic Power Laboratory, it will be the fourth such installation.

Other projects under way aimed at using the atom for peacetime purposes include powering of airplanes with atomic energy and fighting diseases, including cancer, with radioactive isotopes, by-product of A-bomb production.

In earlier times much of the land now known as the Bronx borough, New York City, was occupied by the Seneca tribe of Mohican Indians. The borough was named for Jonas Bronck who settled near Bronck Kills in 1639.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

By JOHN TODD (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13.—Now that the danger of rattlesnakes is over, Sonny Tufts has new worries out on his Hidden Valley ranch. Packs of coyotes are raiding chicken and turkey pens in the area, Sonny told your reporter. "The man told me he saw this big animal in the moonlight which he said certainly wasn't either a dog or a coyote. But, it seems a little fantastic."

"We're keeping our French poodle, Coco, locked up at night. We're afraid the coyotes will kill her."

They killed a total of nine rattlesnakes during the summer. Sonny made good use of the two months he had between finishing "Swell Guy" for Mark Hellinger and starting "Blaze Of Moon" for Paramount.

He held out calloused hands, and explained: "I've been chopping down trees on the last four acres I bought."

The trip caused so many rumors around Hollywood, that it might be well to clear up all the facts concerning Marie McDonald's junket a week ago Sunday to Las Vegas, Neb., to see some other friends off at the airport.

After the plane took off, Marie, who hasn't had any time off since she started "To Kiss And To Keep" for M-G-M, decided it would be fun to go some place—any place. This, despite the fact she was attired in a white evening gown with an ermine wrap. Mrs. Auer agreed, but when they checked the airlines they found there wasn't any planes going out at the moment bound for any place.

That didn't daunt dauntless Marie. She chartered a twin-motored private plane and off they sailed for Las Vegas.

Of course, the two beautiful ladies felt a little out of place when they arrived in the rip-roaring western town in daylight with all their evening finery. But, they managed to purchase slacks and knockabout shoes.

Marie took a few chances during the day and at one time she was $200 in the red. Her luck fortunately changed and she won back all except a dollar, so the day ended happily, although more on the debit side than the dollar. The chartered plane had cost $160 for the two-way trip.

Fights Extradition Back To Georgia
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Leon Johnson, 40, of nearby Clairton, today carried his fight against extradition to a Georgia chain gang into federal court.

Johnson, who was serving life for murder, asked the federal court to intervene because he feared his return to Georgia might result in his being lynched or tortured by jailers. He also charged that he had been illegally detained in the Allegheny county jail. Johnson escaped with 75 other prisoners from the chain gang in 1943.

The Pennsylvania superior court recently upheld a quarter sessions court ruling ordering the fugitive returned to Georgia.

Quick Possession Assured Veterans
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Veterans purchasing homes may now obtain possession in four months under newly instituted rent control measures, it was explained Tuesday by Homer Greene, president of the Pittsburgh real estate board.

Greene pointed out it was not generally known that new regulations went into effect Sept. 29 eliminating the six months waiting period.

Farm Implements And Tractors Are Raised In Price

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—(INS)—A general increase of nine per cent in the price of farm implements and farm tractors was announced Tuesday by the International Harvester Co.

The increase is effective immediately. An official company statement had only one 10 per cent general price increase in farm implements and tractors in the past five years, compared to a reported 60 per cent hike in wage costs during that period.

A company spokesman said the firm was determined to hold the price increase to a minimum—and

Hatchet Attack Victim Succumbs

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 13.—(INS)—John McNally, 46, of Camden, died Tuesday of wounds inflicted upon him last Thursday by a hatchet-wielding intruder into his home.

McNally's wife and two young daughters also were attacked by the assailant.

Mrs. McNally, 42, is hospitalized with a fractured skull. Their children, Josephine, 10, and Patricia, eight, were less seriously injured.

Police said the woman had not been told of her husband's death. McNally never regained consciousness after the attack.

Sees Price Return To Normal Shortly

WEIRTON, W. Va., Nov. 13.—(INS)—E. T. Weir, president of the National Steel company in Weirton, today predicted that prices will return to normal within "three to six months."

The steel chief said temporary price boosts due to the recent sweeping decontrol order, but declared:

"Barring labor troubles, prices will be brought into proper balance in from three to six months."

The important thing is that the buying public will get the goods it needs and wants.

Unless and until mountains learn to duck, it seems advisable to build planes with considerable more ground clearance.

Report 1,221 Died First Nine Months In Highway Crashes

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Highway accidents during the initial nine months of 1946 claimed the lives of 1,221 persons, it was reported today by the state revenue department.

The department said 339 more persons were killed in traffic mishaps during the nine-month period than in the same time of last year, a 38.4 per cent increase.

Pedestrian deaths from January 1 through September 30 totaled 532, an increase of 121 compared with the same period of 1945, the department said.

Arrest Wealthy Rancher As No. 1 Drug Operator

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(INS)—The Treasury Department announced Tuesday that Robert Dudley Linville, described as "the most important international trafficker in narcotics" has been arrested at Phoenix, Ariz.

Commissioner of Narcotics Harry J. Anslinger announced Linville's arrest and termed him the number one drug operator.

Linville, aged 45, was arrested by Treasury narcotics agents. He was posing as a wealthy rancher.

He is being held under bond of $75,000 for extradition to the Southern District of California where he is under indictment for transactions involving the sale of Mexican smoking opium to narcotic agents.

Posed As Rancher
Anslinger said that Linville became a resident of Phoenix in 1941, posed as a wealthy rancher and sought to establish himself as a leading citizen.

The narcotics chief claimed that Linville lived "an amazing life of luxury and ease, which saw him at once and the same time riding the white horse of civic righteousness behind a front of a successful rancher while conducting his sinister secret business in dope and prostitution."

The department said that Linville had lived a life of crime for more than a quarter of a century and had been involved in illegal transactions in dope and prostitution in China, Hawaii, Mexico and the United States.

Arrest of the Phoenix man climaxed a lengthy investigation by narcotics and customs agents which began in 1942.

Started In 1920
The Treasury Department said Linville first attracted the attention of law enforcement officers in 1920 when he was handed a reform school sentence for a freight car robbery in Iowa. He had a series of brushes with the law on charges involving safe cracking, armed robbery, counterfeiting and pandering, as well as dope traffic, the treasury announced.

The department said that Linville received large quantities of opium and other narcotics from Mexico and disposed of them through a cleverly organized syndicate in the United States.

Anslinger asserted that Linville personally negotiated transactions of opium aggregating thousands of dollars and said that this supply of narcotics "represents in Treasury files for submission evidence."

Linville allegedly was involved in trafficking of women in Hawaii, and operated a saloon on the islands.

The Narcotics Bureau said that it had affidavits to the effect that Linville "used his dashing personality and his pose as a wealthy rancher to interest impressionable young women, studiously caused them to become addicted to narcotics, and introduced them into immoral pursuits."

THEATERS GET

BIG TAX BOOST

BELLEVILLE, Pa., Nov. 13.—Seeking for additional sources of revenues for this municipality, the Belleville borough council at its current meeting adopted a resolution increasing the tax on theaters by more than 1,800 per cent.

Heretofore the tax has been $50 per year. The resolution that amended the theater tax ordinance sets the rate hereafter at $3 per day. Computation of the probable tax shows that, exclusive of Sundays, the theater operates 313 days a year, and will be called upon to pay a tax of $939 per annum, instead of $50. There are two theaters here, and if they continue to operate full time, as heretofore, they will pay $1,878 in borough taxes, as compared to $100 heretofore.

DELAYED PENDING

PROBE BY CLINIC

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The trial of William Leffard, 53, McKeesport carpenter-contractor, scheduled to begin yesterday, has been postponed pending his examination by the behavior clinic, it was announced in Pittsburgh.

Leffard was indicted on a murder charge in connection with the fatal shooting of his fiancée, Miss Mary Williams of McKeesport, last June 5 during an argument in the street.

Classmates Meet In Leghorn, Italy

Upon arrival in Leghorn, Italy, from the United States on October 28, Pfc. Victor F. Zombek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zombek of West Washington street, chanced to meet S. Sgt. Andrew Pfahles, Jr., who had just arrived from a tour of duty at Cairo, Egypt, in the mess hall at the Leghorn replacement depot mess hall.

The two, who were graduates of the 1945 class at senior high school, contacted Sgt. Charles DeSimone, who was known to be stationed at Leghorn, and the latter met them and drove them in a jeep to The Ordinance SNL club in Leghorn, where they spent the evening.

Sgt. Pfahles is awaiting transportation back to the United States, where he will be discharged after serving in the African-Middle East theater. Zombek is awaiting assignment at the 42nd Replacement Bn. Sgt. DeSimone has five months of his re-enlistment period yet to serve.

Russian Charges Japanese Are 'Abusing Faith'

TOKYO, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Lieut. Gen. Kuzma Dorevanko, Russian representative on the Allied control council, charged the Yoshida government today with "abusing the faith" of Gen. MacArthur and listed 17 members of the Japanese house of representatives as possible subjects for purging.

The controversial subject of the diet purge, however, passed without fireworks following a reply by U. S. Ambassador George Acheson. MacArthur's deputy on the council, that the supreme commander would welcome any evidence Dorevanko had to offer.

Dorevanko, in making his charge, directly attacked Premier Yoshida for calling a meeting of "the most high-ranking Japanese reactionaries" to discuss ways of raising money to publish a biography of the late Prince Konoye, one of the former organizers of Japanese aggression.

The Russian representative added that the already purged Shemin Ikeda, former chief director of the Mitsui financial combine, attended the meeting.

Snow-Floods Sweep Southern California

Snow Three Feet Deep Mats Mountain Areas, Floods Maroon Families

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Snow and floods brought death and destruction to Southern California today.

Snow three feet deep matted mountain areas and flood waters collapsed a bridge and inundated homes in suburban areas. The storm's fury was blamed for the death of a motorist.

Flood waters fed by steady rain swept into homes in Norwalk, Cal., and marooned 200 occupants of a trailer camp at Long Beach, Cal.

Famed Mt. Wilson, home of the world's largest (100-inch) telescope, was isolated by snow.

Partisan Moves On Atomic Energy Plan Not Likely

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Sen. McMahon (D. Conn.) said today he sees no danger that atomic energy might become a political issue in the partisan division between Congress and the administration.

McMahon also saw a ray of hope for world atomic control in the agreement of the Soviet delegate to a report of the United Nations atomic commission's technical subcommittee finding world control "feasible."

Forecasting a bi-partisan approach by Congress and the administration on atomic affairs, the congressional atomic chairman, who will leave tomorrow for Europe and conferences with persons interested in atomic problems, said:

"I believe there is no feeling of partisan difference in the atomic energy field."

"I cannot imagine anyone with good sense trying to play politics with it."

Court Refuses Rule On Puerto Rican Land Socialization Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The Supreme Court on Tuesday refused to rule on a suit attacking the alleged "socialization" of the Puerto Rican agricultural economy through condemnation of privately-owned estates.

The issue was presented to the high court in an appeal from a first circuit court of appeals decision sustaining the Puerto Rican government's condemnation of more than 3,100 acres belonging to Eastern Sugar Associates, Inc.

The condemnation was instituted by the Puerto Rican Land Authority under the 1941 land law, a statute designed to redistribute agricultural wealth so that "each person who tills the land shall be the owner of that land which supports him."

Hitler's Photographer Wants Stalin As Witness

HIT PHOTOGRAPHER
Heinrich Hoffmann discloses today in the second of a series of three articles, a hitherto untold story about Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin. Hoffmann insists that while he was a Nazi party member he was only an "honest businessman." He offers Stalin as witness to this amazing declaration.

By GEORGE S. MARTIN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

NUERNBERG, Nov. 13.—Heinrich Hoffmann, Hitler's favorite photographer and friend, says he isn't worrying in his jail cell about the an honest businessman and offers Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin as a witness. He says:

"When I was in Moscow I made a picture of Stalin and was even photographed with him. On one picture Stalin grimaced, as he did not want to be snapped at that moment."

"I saw his gesture and immediately asked my photographer to give me the film, which I handed to Stalin."

"I said to him: 'Excellency, I know that is a bad picture but you and I are on the same film and, if you don't mind, I should like to keep this photo as a souvenir for myself and my family.'"

"Stalin smiled and handed me the film."

"Shortly before the war broke out Hitler once asked me what I thought of Stalin. Although I do not like the Russians, I told him I thought Stalin was a great man, with nice manners and a good sense of humor."

"He asked me why I said that and I told him of the incident in Moscow. Then Hitler nodded and agreed I was right."

Goebbels Threatens
"When war broke out, Goebbels called me on the phone and demanded that I hand over the picture of Stalin with a grimace. I refused to give it to him. I told him that Stalin trusted me and that I was a man of honor. He called me a 'dope' and threatened to ask Hitler to force me to give up the film."

"I immediately went to see Hitler, whom I could see at practically any time, and asked him if he remembered when I had refused to give him some private pictures of Kaiser Wilhelm that he wanted to use for anti-monarchist propaganda."

"I said to Hitler: 'When I refused

you said you were glad for then you could be sure that if ever the wheel of history turned, I would not give away intimate photos I had made of you and your surroundings.'"

"Hitler said he remembered and then I told him that Stalin trusted me, too, and that Goebbels wanted the picture I promised would be kept private."

Retort Caustic

"Just then Goebbels entered the room and Hitler told him he could not have the film. Goebbels shot me an angry glance and said: 'Quite a guy, that Hoffman. He started as a simple party member and still is, just earning money.'"

"Hitler answered coldly: 'Other people started as he did and then I made them minister, Herr Minister.'"

"Goebbels bowed and left the room without a word."

That is Hoffmann's story. He

DOCTORS WARN CONSTIPATED FOLKS ABOUT LAZY BILE

IT IS SAID constipation causes many human discomforts—headaches, lack of energy and mental dullness being but a few, but DON'T WORRY.

didn't add, however, that he plans to call Marshal Stalin as a witness when he comes to trial.

DRIVER INDICTED

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—George Shulte, 40, of Homestead, today was under an Allegheny county grand jury indictment in the alleged hit-run death of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Lahr, Pittsburgh, last August 16.

Under the indictment, Shulte was charged with involuntary manslaughter, driving while under the influence of liquor and violation of the state motor code.

A national stadium is to be erected in Guatemala City, Guatemala.

Veteran Pleads Guilty To Murder Of Sweetheart

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Twenty-four-year-old Ross J. Abbott, of Deal Island, Md., entered a plea of guilty Tuesday to the slaying of his 19-year-old sweetheart.

Abbott, a World War II veteran, changed his "not guilty" plea suddenly during his trial for the murder of Pansy Louise Twigg, also of Deal Island, last July 19.

He threw himself upon the mercy of a three-judge court, which immediately began hearing evidence preliminary to imposing sentence.

Abbott was accused of firing three bullets at Miss Twigg on the beach near her home. The youth, police said, was in love with the girl but her parents opposed their romance. Court attaches said Abbott, who was wounded in Italy and who served four years in the army, was given a psychoneurotic disability discharge from the service.

Westminster Gridders Prepare To Battle Grove City Saturday

Ancient Rivals Will Tangle At Farrell Stadium

Westminster Hopes To End Season With Fourth Victory Of 1946 Season

SIX WILL PLAY IN FINAL COLLEGE GAME

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Nov. 13.—Despite an all-day rain the Westminster College grid squad went through a light but long drill Monday afternoon and again Tuesday in preparation for the traditional battle with Grove City College at Farrell high field, Saturday afternoon. The Titans were naturally disappointed with their scoreless tie with Waynesburg Saturday and are determined to end their season with a victory. A triumph over Grove City would give the Blue and White a record of four wins, three ties and one defeat.

Six In Final Game

A half dozen Westminster players will be in their final game at Farrell. They are Park Glass of Connelville, center; Chalmers Zech, of Pittsburgh, end; Joe Mastro of Jeannette, halfback; Bob Hope of Wilkinsburg, end; Dick Newton, halfback, and Rodney Kane of Johnstown.

Coach Mel Hetzler's end problem will be eased with the return of Roy Matlocks of Ellwood City, who was hurt in the Geneva game. However, it is not expected that Ed Sample, Sharon end, will see action again this year as he has a shoulder separation and has been advised to rest.

Nugent May Head Interstate Loop

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Gerald P. (Gerry) Nugent, ex-head of the Phillies, today was rumored as the next president of the Interstate Baseball league. Reports said the league owners, who meet next Monday in Wilmington, Del., offered the post to Nugent because they were dissatisfied with the results obtained by J. Vincent Jamison, now president.

Wife Of Pirates Part-Owner Dies

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Mrs. Helen M. Galbreath, 49, wife of John W. Galbreath, prominent Columbus realtor and sportsman, died Tuesday at her home. She had been ill for several months. Galbreath, widely known in Ohio business and financial circles, owns the Darby Dan race horse breeding farm and is part-owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Penn Coach Hints Of Saturday Upset

Munger Says 'Army Had Better Be In Proper Mental Attitude For This One'

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—(INS)—It might be just wishful thinking, but Coach George Munger of the University of Pennsylvania said today there "might be an upset" when Penn collides with Army at Franklin field on Saturday.

Munger declared: "If Army's not in the proper mental attitude and should make mistakes and we get the breaks, we may have an upset."

"Don't forget that Army's undefeated record is a certain strain. We've been beaten and the boys are still keen to make up for the Princeton defeat."

A crowd of 78,000 is expected to attend the crucial battle. The game has been a sell-out since early in September.

City Leaguers Meet Tonight

Will Elect Officers For 1947 Discuss Coming Season, Plan Action

City baseball for 1947 will be discussed this evening at 8 o'clock at Carm's place on West Washington street as the city leaguers meet to elect officers and plan action for next season.

Baseball in New Castle is on the "up boom" and will continue that way with the proper kind of co-operation. The advent of organized baseball here next summer is spurring the boys onward. The City league welcomes the advent of New Castle taking a Middle-Atlantic league franchise. There are several players in New Castle good enough for tryouts in organized ball and having a team here will help to develop other great stars.

All Managers Out
All managers of the 12 teams in the City league last summer are asked to make an effort to get to this session tonight—George Zidow of the championship Lawrence Indians; Dutch Hill and Joe Adams of the Universal Sanitary Pottery; Sheriff Frank Coen and Earl Moffett of the American Legion; Joseph Frigone of the Christopher Columbus club; Joseph Augustine of the South Hills club; William Lastoria of the Duca D'Abuzzi team; Charles Scaglione of the Sons of Italy; Leonard Gilbert of the West Side Tigers; Robert Smiley of the Ryanown team; Ralph "Blackie" Pundoots, from the West Pittsburgh team; Stephen Gonde of the Slovak club; Carmen DeLeon of the Moose club.

The 1946 officials will handle the meeting tonight until a set of 1947 officers are elected. The following officers of the league C. P. "Bugs" Walther, president; Joseph O'Leary, vice president; and Michael "Jake" Babovsky, secretary and treasurer, will attend the meeting.

William Cullen Bryant's home was in Cunningham, Mass., in the Berkshire hills.

Ezzard Charles Defeats Bivins

Crowd Of 5,000 At Pittsburgh See Charles Even Score With Cleveland

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Ezzard Charles, classy young Cincinnati boxer, punched himself into the ranks of the heavyweight contenders last night in Pittsburgh, when he took a clean 10-round decision over Jimmy Bivins, Cleveland heavy rated No. 1 by Joe Louis.

Although spotting an 11-pound weight edge, and 8-to-5 odds, to Bivins the 175-pound Charles demonstrated the best of his ring knowledge before a crowd of almost 5,000. The Cincinnati lad also won revenge for a previous pummeling at the hands of Bivins three years ago.

Signed For Cleveland
Charles bounded back after being floored for a nine-count in the third round to take the initiative in the last three stanzas with a wild display of punching. However, he stayed off Bivins' desperate attack with a heavy onslaught of his own.

It was Charles' eleven win since his release from the armed forces. Following the fight, Promoter Larry Atkins, of Cleveland, signed the men to a third bout in their series.

Steelers-Eagles To Battle Sunday

Coach Jack Sutherland Will Let Steelers Shoot Works Sunday In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Steelers today prepared to "shoot the works" in their season home sign-off against the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday in a contest that will decide which of the two shall retain a chance for the Eastern pennant.

Coach Jack Sutherland opened his week's work yesterday with the full squad in uniform—including full-back Jim Reynolds who will spell out Bill Dudley, Johnny Clement and Andy Tomasic in their left wing duties. Reynolds was recalled from the Dixie League farm at Richmond Va., earlier this week.

Clement injured
Clement continued to be bothered by a shoulder injury at yesterday's workout.

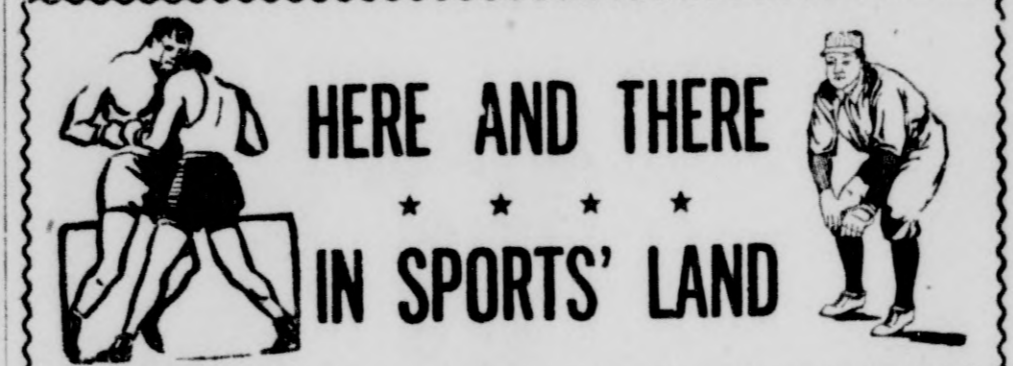

An added feature to the Sunday meeting will be a match between two leading ground gainers, Dudley and Steve Van Buren.

Dudley topped the league in 1942 with 696 yards in 162 tries and Van Buren led in 1945 with 332 yards in 143 attempts.

Truman To Watch Navy-Penn State

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Penn State college authorities today disclosed that President Truman will attend the 23rd meeting of the Nittany Lion-Navy game Saturday at Annapolis. He will be a guest of the Navy.

The Sailors, triumphant over Penn State for the last three years, took 13 victories. Three games were tied and Penn State won seven.

ONE employee of the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Company had an exciting experience Sunday afternoon when a doe leaped through a window into the room where he was. When the man tried to flee through a door, another employee, not knowing he was in the room, held the door shut to prevent the deer from entering another room where there is machinery. The doe plunged and kicked, damaging cupboards then leaped to freedom through another window, according to Dan Carroll, personnel director.

William Sands of the Boosters' club stated today there will be a meeting of committees one week from Friday night, the place to be designated later. Frankie Ross, local businessman, who was sought for umpiring jobs last summer, has enrolled with the Boosters. Elmer (Violent) Ray and Jersey Joe Walcott, heavyweights, box Friday night in Madison Square Garden. Walcott won a decision from Jimmy Bivins then lost because of a cut above an eye in a Camden, N. J., bout. Ray has been tumbling over opponents.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Army-Notre Dame super-colossal spectacle was devoid of thrilling runs and passes and other expected fireworks, with the result that the real unsung hero of it all was a quiet man who sat on the bench of the Fighting Irish.

This would be Coach Frank Leahy, to whose everlasting credit must go the defense that stopped Glenn Davis—and sometimes made him look bad—and hobbled Doc Blanchard's power to maintain a personal record of not only never having lost to Army but also of never permitting a score in this rivalry.

Close to Master
The negative zero-zero outcome may not look like much for the coach of the famed Notre Dames to crow about, but when you put it with his past performances in this particular feud you find that he comes pretty close to being Army's master.

When he first took over at South Bend he played Army to a scoreless deadlock in 1941, then coached his eleven to two straight wins, after which he went away to war. He suffered during his absence under the impact of an aggregate of 107 points scored by Army in straight shutouts of 1944 and last year.

Day's Summary
He is back on the job now and Army is rather well aware of the fact today, as Davis in particular doctored the bruises suffered under a terrific pounding. They never let him get started.

It wasn't the most thrilling game ever played, largely because the battling was up front between two hard-working lines but Army's 25-game winning streak was snapped when the final whistle ended it and this served to accent the occasion.

Lujack Outstanding
Johnny Lujack did a spectacular job as quarterback, kicker, passer and defensive man for Notre Dame throughout the game without a rest and when the day was done probably stood as the outstanding individual in the battle—he and the linemen.

He engineered an 83-yard march for his team in the second period to the Army four-yard line, where

Universal Honors Baseball Players

Sanitary Pottery Officials Give Out 22 Jackets To 1946 Runnersup

Honoring the 1946 Universal Sanitary Pottery baseball team for their splendid achievement on the diamond the past summer, the company officials gave out 22 beautiful and warm jackets to the players last night at a Universal AA spaghetti dinner at a Moravia street extension cafe.

Presentation of the jackets on behalf of W. Keith McAfee, president, was made by Clyde Whitaker, vice president and treasurer of the Universal Sanitary Pottery company, assisted by Business Manager of the team Joseph Adams. Mr. Whitaker gave a fine talk and praised the Universal players for their fine season on the ball diamond.

Dean Staley Toastmaster
Following the consumption of steaming plates of delectable spaghetti and meat balls, French fries and all the trimmings, Dean Staley, production manager at the Universal, assumed the role of toastmaster and called on the following for short talks: George Crawford, a company official; Howard Lowry, of the Universal AA; Howard "Peck" Houston, veteran hurler; Harlow "Dutch Hill" manager; Joseph Adams, business manager; Dan Carroll, personnel manager at the Universal; Joseph Frigone, manager of the Christopher Columbus, and Charles "Bugs" Walther, News sports writer.

Staley did a swell job as toastmaster in his usual witty style, and delivered himself with poise and dignity befitting the aplomb of the duties he was called on to handle. So, chalk up another fine party to the Universal Sanitary Pottery, a thing that they are past-masters at doing. Everybody had a swell time and will remember the event for days to come.

Twenty-Two Get Jackets
The following players received jackets: Paul Morrison, George Adams, Robert Coulter, Paul Richards, Joseph Mingione, Leroy Anderson, Howard Houston, Edward Stewart, Tony Parrott, Peter Razzano, Tony Razzano, William Bulisco, Patsy Bulisco, Sammy Janacome, Frank Cardella, Kenneth Hudson and Leshon Coughlin.

The following officials of the team received jackets: Manager Harlow "Dutch" Hill, Business Manager Joseph Adams, Acting Manager Jesse "Mickey" Huff, Harry Park, scorekeeper and Henry Sumner of the Universal AA.

Wabash Bears Tie Portage Team 0-0
Wabash Bears semi-pro football team played a 0-0 tie with the Portage All-Stars Monday (Armistice Day) in the rain and mud at Portage, Pa. It was announced today by Willie Demenick, president of the Bears.

Demenick reports the Bears hard at work getting ready for the big Thanksgiving Day game with the Alliance Aviators at the New Castle High Taggart stadium.

Trap And Kill Wildcat Here

A. B. Cross Jr. and Roy Morrow Trap Then Kill Three Foot 'Cat' Near City

Wildcat was trapped and killed here Tuesday by A. B. Cross, Jr., and Roy Morrow, both of Meyer avenue, according to A. B. Cross, Sr., acting secretary of the Lawrence County Sportsman's association. "The boys are running traps."

According to Mr. Cross, the boys went to their traps yesterday and when they reached one trap along a creek which is at the foot of Highland Heights hill near the city line, they found a wildcat in the trap.

The boys procured a club and said they "bopped" it on the head, killing the animal. It was taken to the Cross residence. It was said to be three feet in length and weighed about 12 pounds.

It is the first time in many years that a wildcat has been killed in this section.

More Protection For Dogs Urged

Dog Shot While Tracking Game; Sportsmen To Name Officers In December

More protection for licensed hunting dogs was urged when the members of the Lawrence County Sportsman's association met last night in Neshannock hall. According to one report made to the members, a dog while tracking game in the county was killed.

A nominating committee was named for the election of 1947 officers at the December meeting.

Reports concerning hunting conditions this season were unfavorable. In fact, it is said to be one of the poorest game seasons known here.

Army Mentioned For Rose Bowl

Washington Official Says "Army Would Accept Rose Bowl Bid If Invited"

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The Los Angeles Examiner said today the Army would accept the Rose Bowl bid if invited.

The Examiner credited its report to "a very reliable and authoritative source in Washington, D. C."

The Examiner said this same source disclosed that the West Pointers were not invited last year, but would have come west for the New Year's Day football classic in Pasadena had they been "tendered the bid."

Await Invitation
The Examiner story continued: "Also, an unnamed War department official advised the Coast Conference (which always supplies the western team for the classic) that the 'Only way to find out whether West Point footballers could go to the Rose Bowl is by asking them'."

While it hasn't been tendered officially, the Examiner knows the Pacific Coast Conference has sent out a feeler that can be construed as an invitation to the head of the military institution.

Umpires Will Meet Tonight

Anthony Priscaro, acting head of the Lawrence County Umpires has called a meeting at 8 o'clock at the "Y" tonight for the purpose of winding up the 1946 business at hand and to discuss the coming banquet by the balls and strikes men.

The arbiters will also elect new officers for 1947 at their meeting this evening.

All-Star Team Is Shaping Up For Game Friday

Optimist Club Members Gratified By Response To All-Star Game Friday

Under the guidance of Head Coach William Ciccone of Bessemer High, the Lawrence County Senior All-Stars football team that will battle the Mercer County All-Stars at Sharon High stadium, Friday night at 8 o'clock, is taking form.

The Optimist Club Classic is arousing considerable interest here and in Sharon.

Ciccone and his assistants, Thurman Croft, Bob Dinsmore, and Eddie Nahas, have a strong eleven to throw at the Mercer Countians, and have announced that every boy on the squad, 27 of them, will see action at some time in the game Friday.

Lot of Hard Work
The Optimist Club of New Castle is working hard to put this big venture over, and with men like George Weinschenk, Wayne Fullerton and Harold Bosk, looking after the transportation, players and equipment, the game cannot go amiss. It takes a lot of hard work to put a thing of this nature over.

Al Garren, general chairman of the Lawrence County details can tell you.

The coaches and players are all pepped up for the classic and a great game is in store for the fans fortunate enough to secure tickets for the game. The sale of tickets at the Sporting Goods Store has met a ready response, but there are still several hundred good seats available.

Player Changed
One change has been made in the Lawrence County roster. Al Garren said today—Don Lenhardt of Union is replacing Jimmy Smith of Union.

A mistake was made yesterday in the Mercer County roster—Grove City has three players and Greenville three players, the latter team having been omitted in the list, and the players as follows which were credited to Grove City will be Greenville boys—John Clandi, Paul Ashe and Ray Tagliari.

Ellwood Boys on Hand
The Ellwood City High boys having finished their season Monday by trimming Midland joined the squad of All-Stars on Tuesday at the Shenango High practice field. They are Phil Konyak, Carl Agostonelli, Jesse Pehl, George McDougall, Frank Pulla and Charles Mines.

New Castle High's senior contribution to the game is Al Tate, Phil Richards, Don Dean, Anthony Clavelli, Arch Zarone and Albert Zarilla.

West Virginia To Battle Kentucky

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 13. —(INS)—Coach Bill Kern pushed his West Virginia university grid squad through hard pre-game drills today in preparation for the collision with Kentucky Saturday at Lexington.

Kern permitted his eleven little time to dawdle over last week's victory over Fordham last week, and warned his proteges that there was trouble brewing with the Wildcats, who hold the reputation of being one of the toughest outfits in the south. They have been whipped by Alabama and Georgia, while taking six others, including Mississippi, Cincinnati, Michigan State, Marquette, Xavier and Vanderbilt.

HORNETS MEET BARONS

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13. —(INS)—The Pittsburgh Hornets will battle with the Cleveland Barons on the steel city rink tonight to settle their western division deadlock for second place.

Tonight's match promised to be a lively affair, with the tie adding to what is usually a fast-moving fracas.
